

ANNOUNCING THE ASO LIBRARIANS' CHOICE AWARD™ WINNERS!

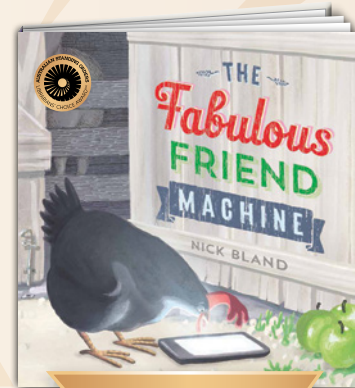

australianstandingorders.com.au

Thank you to all our customers who voted in the inaugural ASO Librarians' Choice Award™. We are very excited to announce the winning book in each category! These are the books that were chosen by YOU as the standout selection of children's literature for 2016. With this issue of Australian Standing Orders we have included for you our special gold Librarians' Choice Award™ stickers to apply to your copy of each winning book on your library shelves.

Congratulations to the authors and illustrators of the following winning books – the favourite choices of 2016 handpicked by Australian school librarians!

FICTION

CONGRATULATIONS to Naomi Heyman, Teacher Librarian at South Grafton Public School, NSW, the winner of lunch with acclaimed children's author Mem Fox!

Her winning entry describes why she voted for Desert Lake: The Story of Kati Thanda-Lake Eyre: "Desert Lake is beautifully designed, aligning fiction and non-fiction perfectly. It promotes a unique, special area of our vast great country, tying in well with the new Geography syllabus."

And well done to our two runners up: Stephen James of Fraser Primary School, ACT and Valerie Burgess of Roebuck Primary School, WA, who have both won a luxury hamper each.
