

Joshie Lefers

Author

Joshie Lefers may be a grown up, but he still acts a lot like a kid – so it makes perfect sense that he’s now writing for kids! Lefers is the author of the Hectic Electric series (Hardie Grant Egmont), as well as the co-author of The Frooties series (Scholastic) with writing partner Hilary Rogers. When he’s not writing laugh-out-loud books, Lefers is usually executive-producing films, hosting his own TV series on Foxtel or running Nickelodeon’s Slimefest!
