A question of loyalty...

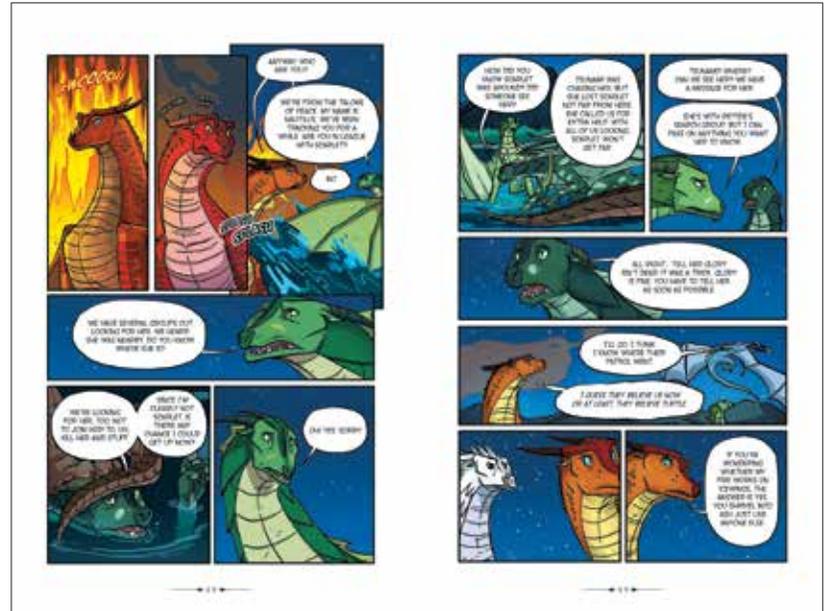

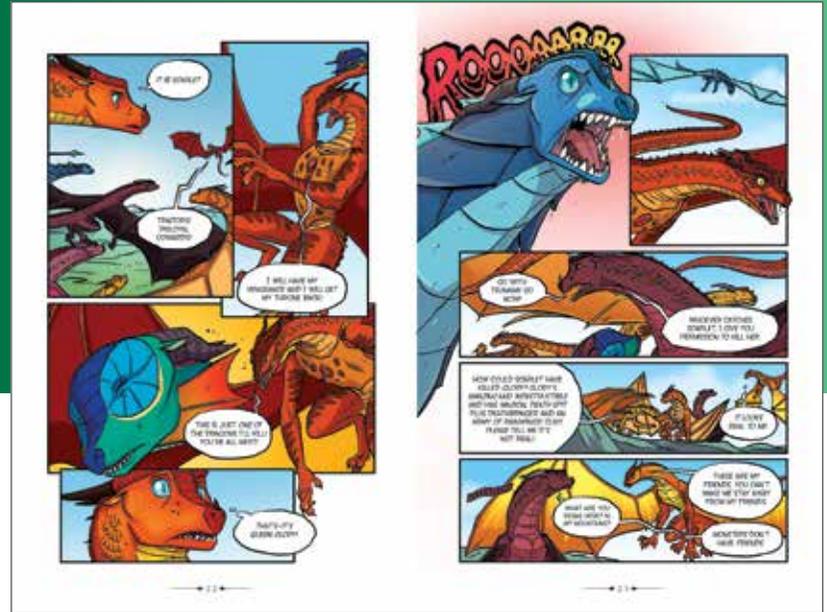

Peril has always been loyal. First to Queen Scarlet, even when she used Peril's fatal firescales to kill countless dragons in her violent SkyWing arena. Now Peril is loyal to Clay, the only dragonet who has ever been her friend. So when Scarlet threatens Jade Mountain Academy and everything Clay cares about, Peril sets off to find her former queen, stop her, and save the day, no matter what it takes.

But on the way, Peril is offered a chance at a completely new life, free of her firescales and the pain they've brought her. All she has to do is decide where her loyalty really belongs ... and whether her own scales might actually be worth saving.

TUI T. SUTHERLAND

I was born July 31 in Caracas, Venezuela, and lived in Asuncion, Paraguay; Miami, Florida; and Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, before moving to New Jersey in high school, where I started doing theatre—mostly backstage work, because (a) it was fun, and (b) you got to hang out in the dark with cute boys. (Er, I mean ... because it was artistically fulfilling, yes.)

I graduated from Williams College in '98 (go Ephs!) and I currently live in Boston with my husband, my two hilarious children, an alarmingly funny ever-increasing number of snails, and our fluffball who finds us all terribly boring, Rainbow Dog (we call him Bo for short).

I was very lucky to work for a while as an editor on the publishing side of things, where I dearly loved all the authors I worked with and their wonderful books. But if you met me, you'd know that mornings are VERY MUCH not my thing and office attire is not any of my other things, and really I am best suited for a job where I can write until 4am, sleep until noon, and work in my pyjamas (ideally with a puppy nearby). (Also, apparently I used too many smiley faces in my professional emails. Now I can use ALL THE SMILEY FACES I WANT mwa ha ha!)

Plus I had all these ideas bouncing around my head wanting to be written, so off I went to do that, and now I've written about 50 books for children and teens, ranging in age from sticker books and easy-to-reads to middle-grade and YA novels.

My current series is the #1 New York Times best-selling Wings of Fire series, a big epic dragon fantasy that'll be at least fifteen books long, plus two related stand-alones and graphic novel adaptations ... it's the most fun, and it's definitely been keeping me busy!

Meet siblings, Page and Turner. The New York Public Library has always been their favourite place, but lately things have become weird ... things like a dragon imprint on the ceiling and a giant beanstalk! It turns out that the books are bursting with magic, and suddenly all sorts of villains are escaping from their books and threatening to destroy the whole library. Now it's up to Page and Turner—as well as a mysterious Night Librarian and a motley crew of escaped storybook characters—to save this beloved library from destruction before it's too late!

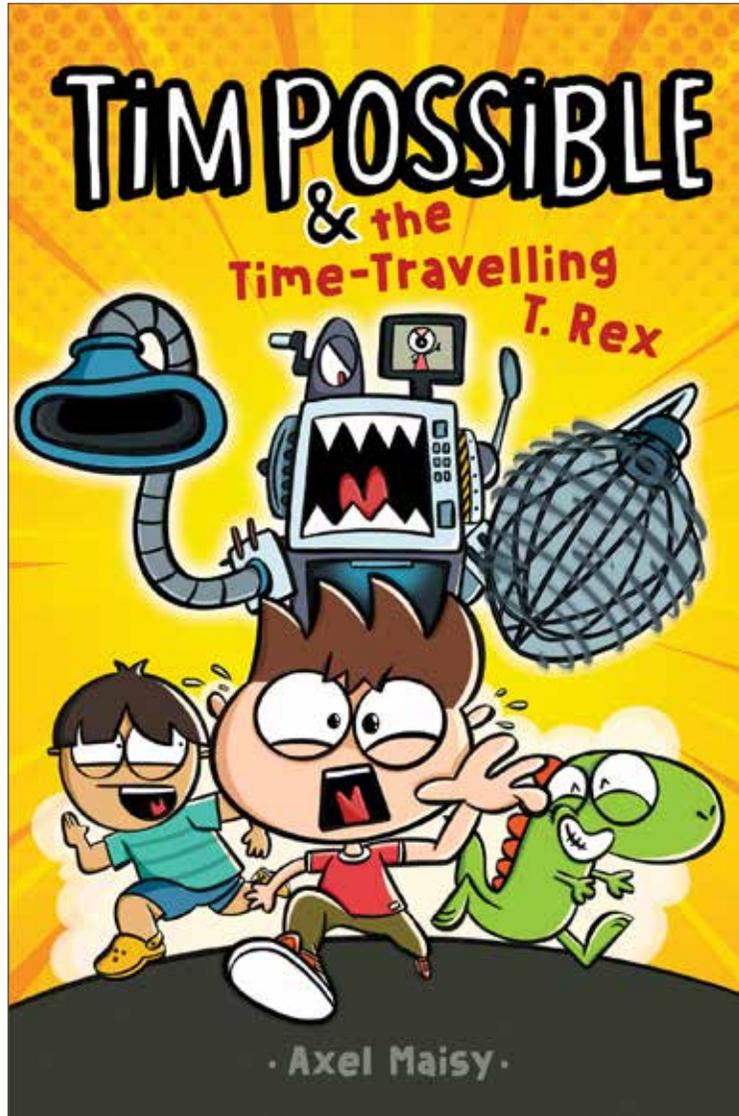

SALES POINTS:

- A clever and playful interweaving of literary references and puns, using classic tales and their characters!
- A tale of personal growth, mutual appreciation, and the unbreakable bonds of family.
- The artwork features interestingly laid-out panels and a strikingly unusual colour palette, bringing the story and characters to life.

The second book in Tom Vaughan's hilarious, highly illustrated series. Hercules Braver has a secret: he's a real-life demigod! So, why does he seem so ... ordinary? Most children of Zeus have some kind of superskill - like bravery, warrior skills or healing powers. Well, thanks to a wild boar (long story), Herc and his friends are off on a school trip to Greece. He's bound to discover his gift there - and even meet more of the gods! But after ending up neck-deep in horse poo, almost falling down a mountain and facing a fierce flock of ravens, this trip feels more like an epic voyage ... What's really going on with the mysterious gods, Athena, Apollo and Ares? And will Hercules discover what makes him special?

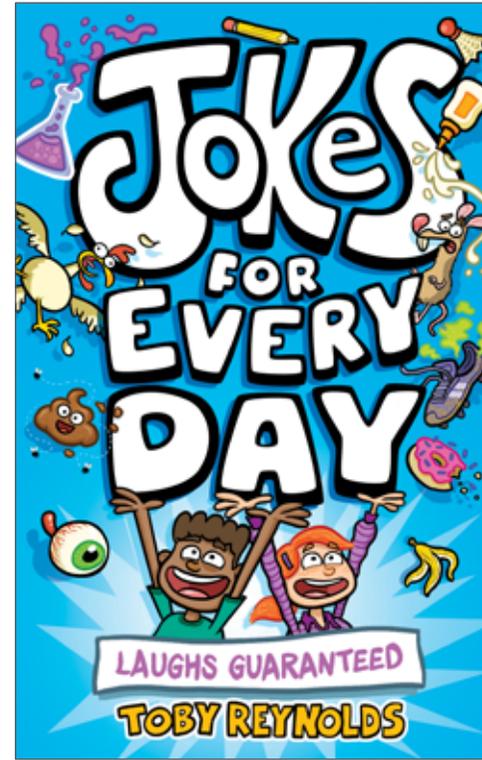

SALES POINTS:

- A hilarious, accessible package brilliantly illustrated by David O'Connell. Ideal for fans of Louie Stowell's Loki, Maz Evans, Marvel's Thor films and Disney's Hercules.
- Hercules Braver's adventures in this book are loosely based on the next three Labours of Hercules, ideal for all young fans of Greek mythology!
- Heartfelt exploration of friendship, secret struggles and discovering your strengths and talents, even if they're unexpected.

The deadliest disease in the history of the world ...

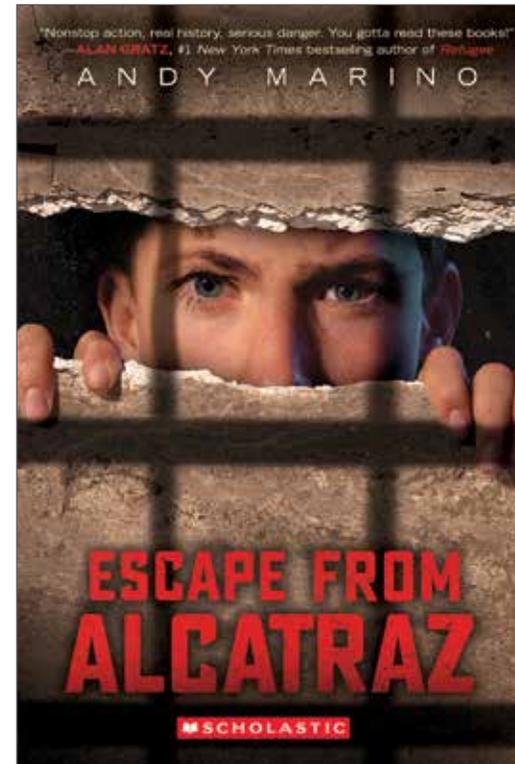

Elsie dreams of becoming a brave warrior like her father, who is an archer fighting in England's war against France. But life isn't fair in 1348 Europe. Peasant girls like Elsie can't be archers or knights or anything exciting.

Then one day in the forest, Elsie and her best friend discover a chest filled with stolen treasures—and a dangerous secret. At last, Elsie has a chance to prove that she's as brave as any knight.

Little does she know that a horrific deadly illness—the Black Death—has begun its attack on England. It's already killed millions around the world. And now it's come for Elsie.

SALES POINTS:

- New York Times best-selling author Lauren Tarshis tells the story of a pandemic of unimaginable proportions, taking the lives of 75-200 million people worldwide.

May 1962...

In the middle of San Francisco Bay looms Alcatraz, home to America's most infamous prisoners. Also home to Chip Carter and his dad, who works at the high-security prison. Their neighbours are former mobsters, gangsters, and murderers, but Chip finds it to be a pretty boring place to live. After all, the inmates can't hurt him—they're locked up in an impenetrable fortress, surrounded by unforgiving waters.

Or are they?

Inmate AZ1441, aka the Watcher, has a plan to break out of Alcatraz. It's a genius plan he's concocted along with three other inmates. Foolproof. Or so he thought until one of the guard's kids stumbles into the middle of it. Chip is stunned. No one can break out of the Rock. Not unless they have an inside guy. Which it seems like they do ... Chip's dad.

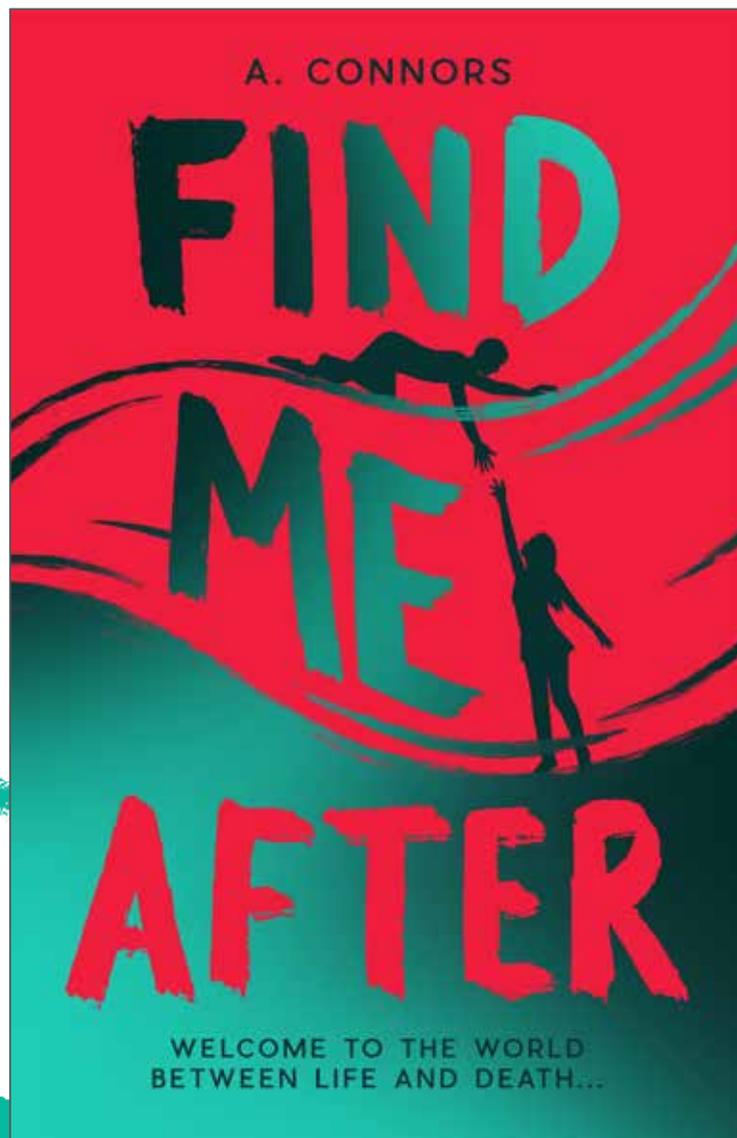

SALES POINTS:

- From the author of The Plot to Kill Hitler trilogy and the Escape From series comes another fast-paced historical thriller.
- Perfect for fans of Alan Gratz.
- Non-stop action, real history and serious danger will have readers enthralled.

When Vietnamese American Freddie Lo finds herself in Vietnam for the first time since she was little, she's not quite sure how to feel. The memories of her extended family are more like distant echoes; she has a tough time speaking Vietnamese; and she can't help but feel like she just isn't Vietnamese enough. Still, this is her chance to reconnect with her family, especially her Ong ngoai—or grandfather—who is receiving a big award. That's when Ong ngoai reveals his secret: He knows the location of an ancient legendary crossbow, one with the power to decimate armies—and he's hidden it away from those who intend to use its magic for evil. But when Ong ngoai is kidnapped, it's up to Freddie, her cousin Lien, and a mysterious boy named Duy to get to the crossbow before it ends up in the wrong hands. In this Indiana Jones-style adventure, readers will travel through Vietnam—from its seaside villages, to the swamps of the Mekong Delta, to the majestic Marble Mountains of Da Nang—as Freddie learns what it takes to be a hero.

SALES POINTS:

- UP-AND-COMING AUTHOR: Brandon Hoàng is a TV executive, screenwriter, and author, having worked on some of the biggest children's properties around, including Avatar: The Legend of Korra, SpongeBob SquarePants, The Ghost and Molly McGee, and more. Now, Brandon will bring his commercial writing chops to novels as we have the honor of publishing his debut middle-grade novel!
- REPRESENTATION: There are very few books for middle-graders on shelves that feature Vietnamese mythology compared to those that feature Western myths. This story helps to fill that void.
- TIMELY THEMES: The novel tackles important themes like the immigrant experience, living in a multicultural (and multigenerational) family, conflict resolution, and overcoming generational trauma—all of which are relevant for the age group.

When Cal Ware wins a scholarship to an elite New England boarding school, he's thrilled to leave his past behind. Back home in Mississippi, he was the poor, queer kid who never fit in. But at Essex Academy, he'll be able to reinvent himself. Or so he hopes... But at Essex, Cal's classmates only see his cheap clothes and old iPhone. They mock his accent, and can't believe he's never left the country, or heard of The Hamptons. Cal, at his breaking point, is about to give up and return to Mississippi when he learns about a secret society on campus—the key to becoming Essex royalty. Cal knows he's not exactly secret society material, but to his surprise, he finds an unlikely champion in the handsome, charismatic, and slightly dangerous Luke Kim. As they get swept up in the mystery and glamour of the Rush process, Cal finds himself falling in love for the first time. But as the initiation rituals grow riskier—and increasingly nefarious—Cal must decide how far he's willing to go, and how much of himself he's willing to sacrifice, to save everything and everyone he cherishes most. Because nothing at Essex—not even Cal's first love—is quite what it seems.

SALES POINTS:

- Dark Academia is a HOT genre but there's currently very little queer rep.
- Cal and Luke's romantic, slightly twisted love story will strike a deep chord with teen readers.
- The perfect blend of aspirational escapism AND a take-down of class and privilege.
- Derek is super well-connected in the YA world and we'll have lots of great blurbs from high profile authors.

When Riley Andersen was 11 years old, she was driven by her five Emotions: Joy, Fear, Disgust, Anger, and Sadness. From the Headquarters in Riley's mind, Joy knew exactly what to do to keep things running smoothly most of the time. Now at age 13, Riley is going through some pretty big changes! She's a teenager, and that means the Emotions have their hands full tackling the stresses of teenage life. When new Emotions Anxiety, Embarrassment, Ennui, and Envy arrive, Riley's world gets even more complicated. Can Joy and all the Emotions find a way to make sure everything turns out okay? There's also an extra extension story following the events in Inside Out 2!

SALES POINTS:

- Inside Out was released in 2015 and has become a modern classic for many of its fans. The film was nominated and won Best Animated Feature at the Academy Awards in 2015, and it made over $858 million at the worldwide box office.
- Following the success of the first film, Inside Out 2 was released in June 2024 and has become the biggest animated movie of all time!
- This graphic novel retells the Emotions' journey in the two films. Graphic novels are the perfect way to engage with reluctant readers.

Disney Pixar INSIDE OUT 2

SALES POINTS:

- The long-awaited sequel to Inside Out is being released on the 13th of June to great excitement. The official teaser trailer has over 20 million views on YouTube alone!
- The characters that people know and love from the first movie will be joined by new Emotions and new vocal talents such as Maya Hawke.
- The world of Inside Out helps kids to develop their social and emotional awareness as they grow. The new film will explore the complex changes that come with being a teenager.

DINO PARK

Lightning McQueen and his best buddy, Mater, were on a cross-country road trip. There were all sorts of things to see. They hadn't gone too far, when suddenly -- "Woah, woah, woah!" Mater shrieked. A huge dinosaur car zoomed over them! As they drove closer they saw that it was just a dinosaur car sculpture at the entrance of a dino park. "I love these!" said Lightning. "Let's go see!" Mater wasn't too interested. "I don't know much about these dino things," he said. "Well, there's all about it changed," said Lightning. He began reading off dino facts as they made their way through the museum.

The more that Mater listened, the sleepier he got. Soon he drifted off. When he opened his eyes, he was in a strange land full of palm trees and volcanoes. He also looked different -- he had become Cave Mater. "Lightning!" Cave Mater exclaimed. His friend looked like a dino car too! Suddenly, a Tyrannosaurus rex appeared and clamped down on Lightning! "Hey, that's sharp!" Cave Lightning shouted. "Just then, an even larger dino car appeared and grabbed the Tyrannosaurus in its mouth!"

Kachow! Get ready to read four off-roading adventures with Lightning McQueen, Mater and their friends. From visiting dino parks to joining the circus, buckle up for some heart-racing fun!

Buddy Lewek has spent most of his life dreaming of escaping the slums of 1939 New York City. Counting pennies to survive, it doesn't seem likely that Buddy's dreams of becoming an artist will ever be realised, but that all changes when he meets Mr. Joey Drew, the eccentric owner of an animation studio. Mr. D takes Buddy under his wing as an apprentice and Buddy couldn't be happier ... maybe, as Mr. D says, dreams do come true. But not everything at the studio is as picture-perfect as it seems ... Something is going bump at night in the studio, something that leaves behind trails of thick, dark ink. Buddy is determined to find out just what is tormenting the studio after-hours, even if it means tracking the trail to Mr. D himself.

Atlantic City, 1946. Bill, Constance and Brant can't help but feel like they are missing out on life. Bill craves an existence outside of his father's influence. Brant is willing to play a dangerous game to further his career and make a name for himself. Constance yearns for the freedom to be herself and do exactly what she loves. What these three teens don't know is that their desires will lead them all to a dark secret. Something inky just came to town in the form of a curious machine and a visit from a man named Joey Drew. When mysterious ink stains begin permeating their lives, will these teens investigate and risk it all in the process? And what of the monster lurking in the shadows? Read and find out in this chilling sequel to Dreams Come to Life by Adrienne Kress!
