DAV PILKEY

As a child, Dav Pilkey was diagnosed with dyslexia and ADHD. Dav was so disruptive in class that his teachers made him sit out in the hall every day. Luckily, Dav loved to draw and make up stories, so he spent his time in the hallway creating his own original comic books. In the second grade, Dav Pilkey created a comic book about a superhero named Captain Underpants. His teacher ripped it up and told him he couldn't spend the rest of his life making silly books. Fortunately, Dav was not a very good listener.

Dav has gone on to create award-winning and best-selling books for children. His Captain Underpants series has more than 80 million copies in print worldwide and has been translated into more than 28 languages.

Dav is also the creator of the bestsellers Cat Kid Comic Club series, the Dragon series, the Dumb Bunnies series, Dog Breath and The Paperboy, which is a Caldecott Honor Book.

Dav's creation, Dog Man, is a best-selling series with more than 13 million copies in print worldwide and translations available in more than 21 languages. Dog Man movie coming in January 2025!

The kindness and determination of the Little Blue Engine have inspired millions of children around the world since the story was first published in 1930. Then indeed the little train was very, very sad, and the dolls and toys were ready to cry.

But the little clown called out, "Here is another train coming, a little blue engine, a very little one, maybe she will help us."

The very little engine came chug, chugging merrily along. When she saw the toy clown's flag, she stopped quickly. "What is the matter, my friends?" she asked kindly.

One day, Fox waits by a forest track with a small blue suitcase and the feeling that something extraordinary is about to happen. And then, along comes an incredible house on wheels, towed by doleful Moose. On board are distinguished Bear and theatrical Toucan, with his magnetic beak that always points north.

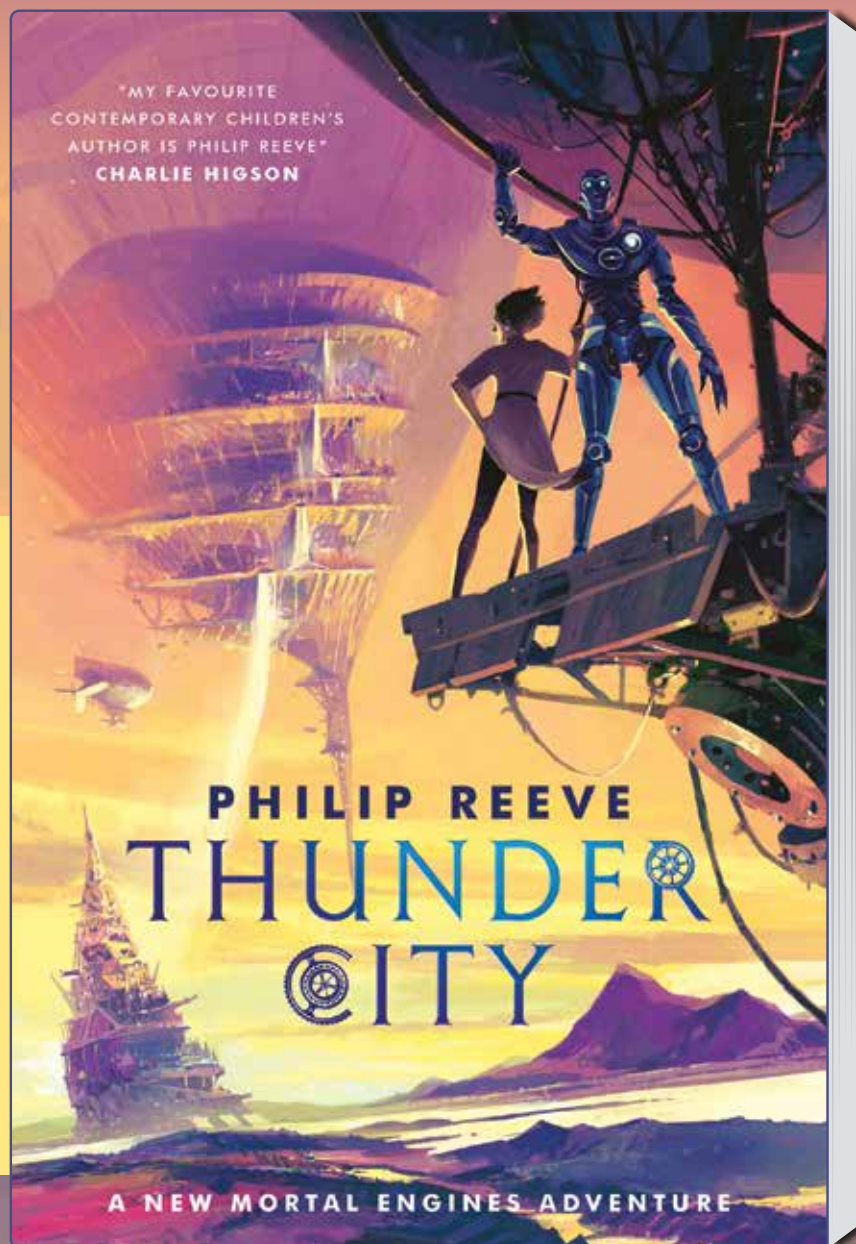

Together, the animals embark on an adventure: they're off to see the fabled Northern Lights. The expedition brings them new friends, like excitable Young Llama and argumentative Little Owl. But they also meet challenges along the way—and their journey's end will require the most courage of all.

A brave, touching and timeless children's fable about friendship, art and the journey of a lifetime.

struts a fine-feathered bird with leathery feet.
Her plumes of white are splashed with gunk.
On her bald, black head sits a crown of junk.

They call her Bin Chicken, a stinky sensation, and she's in a hurry!

Looking in, she can't believe what she sees—sausage rolls, party pies, a quiche made with peas!

Lamingtons, cupcakes, a gluten-free slice,
blueberry pikelets and delicious fried rice!
And there in the middle, a large strawberry cake,
with whipped-cream icing
just ready to take!

When David Shannon was five years old, he wrote and illustrated his first book. On every page were these words: NO, DAVID! ... and a picture of David doing things he was not supposed to do. All he hears from his mother as he breaks her rules is 'No, David!', 'That's enough, David!', and 'Settle down!'

Now David is all grown up. But some things never change ... David is a beloved character, whose unabashed good humour, mischievous smile, and laughter-inducing antics underline the love parents have for their children—even when they misbehave. Children will find his outrageously bad behaviour both funny and liberating as they see themselves in him.

When Ren achieves her lifelong dream of attending Corona College, it feels like her life is finally beginning. Fitz has the rest of his life mapped out: graduate from Corona at the top of his class, get his criminal record wiped clean, and pass himself off as the rich, handsome player everyone thinks he is. But a simple assignment in their immunology seminar changes the course of both their lives, and suddenly they're thrown out of the frying pan and into the fire on a road trip that will lead them in the most unexpected directions. When they're out on the open road, the world somehow shifts, and the unlikely pair realise that, maybe, the key to the dreams they've both been chasing has been sitting next to them the whole time.

Based on Disney and Pixar's Inside Out 2, this humorous and charming middle grade novel retells and expands upon the film!

Change isn't anything new to Riley Andersen. When she was eleven years old, she and her parents moved across the country from Minnesota to San Francisco. But through it all, Riley's Emotions—Joy, Sadness, Anger, Disgust, and Fear—guided and supported her.

Now Riley is thirteen years old, and her Emotions can't wait to see what her teenage years will bring. But the idea of starting high school elicits all kinds of feelings, including four new Emotions! Anxiety, Envy, Embarrassment, and Ennui enter Headquarters, ready to help Riley succeed in high school. Joy and the core Emotions aren't sure about these newcomers and how much they're changing Riley; the new Emotions think it's time to take a different approach now that she's a teenager. Although change happens to everyone—and especially to Riley—this chaos both inside and outside of Headquarters is unlike anything Riley and her Emotions have experienced before!

SALES POINTS:

- Inside Out was released in 2015 and has become a modern classic for many of its fans. The film was nominated and won Best Animate Feature at the Academy Awards in 2015, and it made over $858 million at the worldwide box office.
- Following the success of the first film, Inside Out 2 was released in June 2024 and has become the biggest animated movie of all time!
