

Hi! I'm Sapphire Sparks.

And this is my completely normal, nothing-out-of-the-ordinary family.

OK, so you're probably wondering why we're chasing a Wolfman. Well ... we are ...

Monster Hunters!

It's been the family business for the last 238 years, since my great-great-great-great-great-great-great-grandmother Scarlett Sparks discovered a Bigfoot and barely managed to escape with her life.

There's even a monster-hunting club:

(TSFTHOMWADE for short.)

ALL the best hunters have been part of it.

She's my hero!

She'd caught 23 monsters by the time she was my age! If she hadn't gone missing, she'd have been the first monster hunter to catch more than Van Helsing!

There's only one problem.

A reeeaally
tiny problem.
