WHEN WE FLEW AWAY

BY ALICE HOFFMAN

The story of what might have been ANNE FRANK'S life before she began her famous diary.

THERE IS A DAY you never forget, the day the whole world changes. When you close your eyes, light becomes dark, night never ends, beasts walk freely down the street, stars fall from the sky. You were young one second, and then you were far too old. You lived years in minutes and decades in weeks. You wanted to travel, you wanted to grow up, you wanted to be beautiful, you wanted to fall in love. You wanted so much that your heart broke in half, but half a heart is better than none, and your heart is stronger than anyone would guess. You remember everything.

READ THE FIRST CHAPTER

“How wonderful it is that no one has to wait even a minute to start gradually changing the world...” ANNE FRANK

ALICE HOFFMAN is the acclaimed author of over thirty novels for readers of all ages, including The Dovekeepers, The World That We Knew—winner of the Dayton Literary Peace Prize—The Marriage of Opposites, Practical Magic, Incantation, The Foretelling, and most recently, The Invisible Hour. Her previous novels for Scholastic Press are Aquamarine, which was made into a major motion picture, Indigo, Green Witch, and Green Angel, which Publishers Weekly, in a boxed, starred review, called “achingly lovely.” She lives outside Boston.

They are an independent non-profit organisation that runs a museum in the house where Anne Frank went into hiding, with the aim of raising awareness of the dangers of antisemitism, racism, and discrimination and the importance of freedom, equal rights, and democracy.

100 YEARS OF MAY GIBBS' BIB AND BUB

Celebrating Australia's first female newspaper cartoonist 100 years later

BORN IN 1877 IN KENT, United Kingdom, May Gibbs arrived in Australia at the age of four. She drew and painted as a child and went on to study art in Western Australia and in the UK before settling in Sydney as a children's books author and illustrator. 2016 marked 100 years of May Gibbs' first children's book Gumnut Babies and 2018 celebrated the Tales of Snugglypot and Cuddlepie centenary. On her passing in 1969, she bequeathed 50% of the copyright of all her works to The Northcott Society and 50% to Cerebral Palsy Alliance. Through her foresight and generosity, proceeds from the sale of May Gibbs products have supported thousands of Australian children living with disability and their families.

THIS YEAR, May Gibbs' first and longest-running cartoon strip turns 100! In August 1924, Gibbs was 47 years old when her popular comic strip Bib and Bub first appeared in the Sunday News. Hired by the Sunday News on the recommendation of fellow cartoonist Syd Nicholls, Gibbs thrived in an otherwise male-dominated field, producing a Bib and Bub comic strip every week for 43 years! The half-page strip featuring her signature cheeky Gumnut Babies is still one of the longest-running comic strips in Australia to be continuously produced by one single artist.

*Crack went the bough, down they all went.
That was the end of the argument.*

*He dashed along, sprang through the air.
and in two twinklings, they were there!*

A testament to her creativity and longevity, Gibbs produced her final Bib and Bub comic strip for the Sun Herald in 1967, aged 91.

A collection of her original drawings is now proudly on display at the State Library of NSW. Curator Sarah Morley suggests that May Gibbs proved herself a "shrewd businesswoman" who kept track of all of her work and paid in notebooks and even created another income stream with Tiggy Touchwood, published under a pseudonym in a rival newspaper.
