

WOWEE! LOOK AT THAT TREE!

A Tree Like Me

The tree grows differently, just like people. Draw yourself as a tree:

A large empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for drawing a tree.

I am like this tree because:

WOWEE! LOOK AT THAT TREE!

Look carefully through the book and count how many pictures or words you see. Make tally marks as you search, then write the total.

Item to find	Tally	Total
Bees
Chopped down trees
Sun
The word 'WOWEE!'
Leaves on page 3
Children

Answer the questions:

1. Which category had the greatest number?

2. Which category had the smallest?

3. How many were there altogether?

4. How many more bees than the word 'WOWEE!' are there?

5. How many fewer bees than chopped down trees are there?

What Makes Me Special

Everyone has strengths. Draw one thing you are good at:

A large empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for drawing. It occupies the central portion of the page.

One of my strengths is:

WOWEE! LOOK AT THAT TREE!

I'm not really sure why I'm _____.

Why have I grown into a tree? Why not a _____? Why not a bee?

I'm only _____, but I know a good tree always has to grow.

I grow myself off to the _____.

Trees my age laugh at the sight, teasing me about my _____.

“It's crooked, bent and so _____.”

The seasons change, the wind, it _____... But to the side I grow and _____.

A good tree should grow to the _____.

They walk up to me. Will I get _____?

My tree tears well; I start to _____. “This tree is PERFECT! This tree is _____!”

My tree tears well again, but now it's _____ tears that trickle down.

But someone will always love you for _____.

Questions:

1. How was this tree different from the others?

3. Why were the tears “happy tears” at the end?

WOWEE! LOOK AT THAT TREE!

I'm not really sure why I'm _____. Why have I grown into a _____? Why not a bird? Why not a _____? I guess I'll just have to be _____.

I'm only tiny, but I know a good _____ always has to grow. But why straight up? I'm in charge of how I _____.

So I do, with all my might. I grow myself off to the _____. Trees my age laugh at the sight, teasing me about my _____.

'WOWEE! Look at that _____!' The other saplings laugh at _____. 'It's crooked, bent and so unusual!'

The seasons change, the wind blows... but to the side I grow and grow. My leaves turn _____ then fall below. I grow through sun and _____.

Now strange creatures run around quick, giving all the trees a big red tick. They walk up to me. Will I get _____?

'WOWEE! Look at that TREE!' The creatures look up at _____.

'It's crooked, bent and so unusual! This tree is _____!'

But then I hear a voice... 'WOWEE! Look at that TREE!' A tiny creature looks up at _____.

'It's crooked, bent and so unusual... This tree is PERFECT! This tree is _____!'

My tree tears fall down, but now they are _____ tears. There is joy and laughter all around.

So if you're down, please don't be _____. Not everyone will love what you do. There might be a million, or only _____... but someone will always love you for _____.
