Yvette has always worked with words: as a high school English teacher, a journalist and before that in the world of book publishing.

Born and bred in Sydney, Yvette also has a passion for Sydney's history and wrote My Australian Story: Escape From Cockatoo Island, set in the year 1879 which delves into Sydney's colonial history.

Yvette is well known for her bestselling series, Ella and Olivia, which is a series of books for newly independent readers. She also writes the Ella and Olivia treasury collections, Best Friends Stories and Sisters' Day Out Stories.

Yvette lives in Sydney.

REVIEWS

Review for Ella and Olivia:

I loved this book from the start. It's perfectly pegged for this age group, with sentence length and structure kept simple and purposeful, as are the word choices. The chapters are short, so perfect for shortened attention spans and before-bedtime reading. A lot of thought has been put into making this a book kids of this age can read by themselves, while still challenging them enough so they feel like they are reading a 'grown-up book.'
