Lexi lives with her mum and her mum's fiancé, John, and her half-sister Iris. She knows that she's different—she has an anger inside her that she struggles to control. She's certain that there's something wrong with her—she wants to impress everyone, and make her mum proud of her. But impressing John is the real challenge. He has very clear ideas of what sort of a stepdaughter Lexi should be, and no matter what she tries, she always seems to come up short. Especially when compared to Iris, who is always treated as the 'perfect' daughter. John's influence on her mum is also becoming more and more clear, as she has started sharing his view of Lexi. Lexi's anger is going to lead her into trouble, and to question everything about herself, and who she really is.

SALES POINTS:

- A masterful story exploring emotional abuse and right at the core of contemporary discussions of the ways women are manipulated by men.
- Jenny Downham's new novel is a peerless and ultimately uplifting exploration of this heartbreakingly common reality.

In February 2019, a tiny spark in a Pigeon Valley paddock became the largest fire in New Zealand since 1955. Up to 150 volunteer firefighters fought the blaze. Around 3,500 people were evacuated, including the whole town of Wakefield. Robyn Prokop has based her story on a real cat that survived the fires.

While his family is busy packing up to evacuate, Dozer the cat is oblivious, busy doing what Dozer does: stalking, pouncing, washing ... and sleeping. But when he wakes up, his family has gone and the world is a frightening place!

SALES POINTS:

- Based on a true story about bravery and survival, the story of Dozer the Fire Cat will tug on the heartstrings... but has a happy ending.
- Beautifully illustrated by one of NZ's top children's illustrators, Jenny Cooper.
- Includes backmatter with facts about the Pigeon Valley fires.

Lara Jean keeps her love letters in a hatbox her mother gave her. One for every boy she's ever loved. When she writes, she can pour out her heart and soul and say all the things she would never say in real life, because her letters are for her eyes only. Until the day her secret letters are sent out...

Lara Jean has still so much to look forward to: a class trip to New York City, prom with her boyfriend Peter, Beach Week after graduation, and her dad's wedding to Ms. Rothschild. Then she'll be off to college with Peter, at a school close enough for her to come home and bake chocolate chip cookies on the weekends. Life couldn't be more perfect! At least, that's what Lara Jean thinks... until she gets some unexpected news. Now the girl who dreads change must rethink all her plans—but when your heart and your head are saying two different things, which one should you listen to?

Everyone knows that unicorns are perfect. They are glamorous and glittery, and their smiles make rainbows appear! But Kevin is having a less-than-perfect day. First, he wakes up on the wrong side of the bed... on the floor. Then he discovers that his mane is so wild that even his Super-Perfect-Hair-Day-Spray can't tame it. And the day just gets worse from there. Kevin does his best to keep his outlook sunny, but it's hard to keep smiling when everything goes horribly wrong!

SALES POINTS:

- A laugh-out-loud look at the pressure to be perfect and the importance of expressing your feelings
- A perfect story for kids to realise that they are not alone and that everyone—even unicorns—have bad days.

Life has returned to routine for Mitch. Mostly. He's had to find a new kind of normal after his dad drowned, saving a local kid. But now there's a new girl in Mitch's class and she is stirring things up. Her name is Max, she dresses a bit goth, and suddenly seems to be everywhere. One night, Mitch sees Max and she looks different. She has ... wings. Big feathery wings. Surely he must have dreamt it. But no. It turns out Max is an angel but not quite how you'd imagine one. She is Mitch's emergency rescue angel, and just the kind of friend you want on your side when life gets tricky.

SALES POINTS:

- New middle grade fiction from Cate Whittle—with her signature mix of humour, quirkiness, and insight.

After their father's reckless death, the Gallagher family must find new directions. Dinny's mum finds a new form of freedom, but the paths the boys are choosing are pointing them in dangerous directions. Fourteen-year-old Dinny is in danger of repeating his father's behaviour, and his older brother Carl sees an opportunity for independence. But when Carl becomes involved in the aggressive agenda of an anti-immigration group, a different crisis develops—leading the family to tragedy, insight, and rebirth.

SALES POINTS:

- A brilliant new YA fiction from winner of the 2018 Prime Minister's Prize for YA Literature, Richard Yaxley.
- Moving and revealing story dealing with topical dilemmas facing modern young men—the rise of the alt-right and hate groups, the pressure to be masculine, and what happens when emotions are stifled or blame shifts to the wrong people.
- Compelling themes of family, tragedy, rebirth and understanding.

What if Wendy first travelled to Never Land... with Captain Hook? Sixteen-year-old Wendy Darling's life is not what she imagined it would be. Wendy's only real escape is in writing down tales of Never Land. After nearly meeting her hero, Peter Pan, four years earlier, she still holds on to the childhood hope that his magical home truly exists. So when an opportunity to travel to Never Land via pirate ship presents itself, Wendy makes a deal with the devil. But when Captain Hook reveals some rather permanent and evil plans for Never Land, it's up to Wendy to save Peter Pan and his world.

SALES POINTS:

- Part of the incredibly popular Twisted Tales series that puts a thrilling twist in much-loved tales, exploring what would happen if key turning points in classic stories did not work out as planned.
- With eye-catching foil and pantone on the cover.
- The original Peter Pan film came out in 1953 and has remained a treasured favourite for decades.
- The original film has since launched multiple spin-offs, keeping the tale of the boy who never grows up vivid in people's memories.
