Inspired by the extraordinary works of Australian artists painting the First World War as it happened around them, this evocative book commemorates and explores the sacrifice of the soldiers, nurses who served and the families at home waiting for their return. Illustrator Simon O'Carrigan has worked with war museum collections to curate, collate and recreate the original art to produce heartbreaking illustrations in this one-of-a-kind Anzac book.

SALES POINTS:

- A truly unique picture book featuring the authentic and iconic art of WW1.
- Stunning recreations of images from Australian war artists create an evocative narrative.
- Themes include mateship, Australia, the ANZAC, and the human impact of war.

Lying about his age, and looking for adventure, 14-year-old Victor March enlists in the 10th Battalion of the AIF to fight in the Great War. Victor and his new mates, Fish, Needle and Robbo, are headed for the Gallipoli peninsula and into battle. He is among the first soldiers to land at Anzac Cove on 25 April 1915, and the world as he knows it is about to change. In his diary, Victor records the horrors of war, his friendships, his fears and the story of Australia's most legendary military campaign.

SALES POINTS:

- A novel about an iconic Australian battle that formed the ANZAC legend.
- A moving story about mateship, courage, and the horrors of war.
- Part of the My Australian Story series redesign.

Life in Germany in 1939 is not safe for 13 year old Max Gruber so he is sent to his Uncle Ferdy in London, only to find himself sent to Australia aboard the famous ship Dunera. Arriving in rural Hay, and housed in an internment camp, he meets local boy Tom. The two new friends become allies, as their lives are affected by the growing conflict in far away Europe.

SALES POINTS:

- Second book in the new series of stories set during the Second World War.
- From award-winning author, Claire Saxby.
- A stand-alone novel following the lives of two boys influenced by a far-away conflict.
- Covers the history of the influx of Jewish refugees interned as 'enemy aliens' who arrived on the Dunera known as the 'Dunera Boys'.
- Explores the impact of internment.

MY AUSTRALIAN STORY: HEROES OF TOBRUK

AU RRP: $16.99
NZ RRP: $18.99

Author: DAVID MULLIGAN
 Publisher: OMNIBUS BOOKS

 Format: PAPERBACK
 Type: FICTION
 Age Level: 9+
 Dimensions: 198 X 128 MM
 Page Count: 208 PP

It is 1940, and sixteen-year-old Peter Fullerton and his best mate Tony Cantonelli lie about their age to enlist in the army. Tony also lies about his surname—Australia is at war with Italy, and suspicion has been added to the racism he already encounters. Heroes of Tobruk follows these characters from the outbreak of war, through military training to the Siege of Tobruk. Meticulously researched, it combines historical detail and factual information about World War II with a very powerful personal story.

SALES POINTS:

- Part of the My Australian Story series redesign.
- A novel about an iconic Australian battle.
- Thoroughly researched with maps and photographs throughout.
- A moving story about the horror of war and the courage of ordinary soldiers.
- Endorsed by Peter FitzSimons, author of Tobruk, with an introduction by Lieutenant General Peter Leahy, Chief of Army.

Mulan is different. She's not quite as graceful as the other girls in her village, nor is she as good at weaving as her little sister. She gets distracted when her dad teaches her calligraphy, and sometimes all she'd like to do is ride her horse or stare up at the clouds. It's true—Mulan doesn't always fit in. But with the help of those she loves, she finds that maybe she's just been looking in the wrong places. Celebrate the brand-new Disney live-action film, Mulan, with this picture book filled with enchanting illustrations.

Half-witch, half-mortal sixteen-year-old Sabrina Spellman has made her choice: she's embraced her dark side and her witchy roots. Now her power is growing daily... but will it come at too high a price? Sabrina Spellman has just made the hardest decision of her life: she's leaving behind her beloved friends at Baxter High. Now it's time to follow the path of night and find her way among the witches and warlocks at the Academy of Unseen Arts.

Sabrina has always been good at the school thing, but now she has a whole new world to navigate. Her power is growing daily, but it comes with a high price. She must always remember her new allegiances and the cost they have on her friends... and on herself. And then there's her new classmates. Prudence, Dorcas and Agatha are friends, kind of, but can Sabrina trust them? And what about Nick Scratch? He's as charming as ever, but will his feelings for Sabrina last? Based on the hit Netflix show, this original YA novel tells an all-new, original story about Sabrina.

Even after everything that's happened, the world outside the Horde's walls is still a strange one to Adora. Each day she's learning more about her growing powers as She-Ra, including something new: the ability to heal corrupted runestones. Runestones are the magical source from which princesses like Frosta, Mermista and Perfuma draw their power, but Glimmer knows of another runestone: one with a dark past. Long ago, a fire princess ruled the lands to the west, until her thirst for power corrupted her, and led to the ruin of her kingdom. Glimmer thinks the lost fire runestone could give the Rebellion an edge in the fight against the Horde, but claiming this ancient power won't be easy... especially when the Horde has their eyes set on the same prize. Don't miss this original graphic novel with story by She-Ra showrunner and New York Times best-selling author Noelle Stevenson, script by Gigi D.G. and art by Paulina Ganucheau!
