KATIPO JOE

AU RRP: $16.99
NZ RRP: $18.99

Author: BRIAN FALKNER
 Publisher: SCHOLASTIC
 NEW ZEALAND
 ISBN/ABN: 9781775436447
 Format: PAPERBACK
 Type: FICTION
 Age Level: 12+
 Dimensions: 198 X 128 MM

Young Joe is living in pre-WWII Berlin, with his British father and NZ mother, attending school and witnessing the excitement of his friends who are enthusiastically joining the Hitler Youth Movement. Joe feels uncomfortable with the growing mistreatment of local Jews, and after the arrest of his father as a spy, he is forced to escape from Berlin with his mother. Joe is separated from his mother and evacuated to New Zealand, and, while war looms in Europe, he is frustrated by his distance from the action, and his inability to do anything about finding his father. After a harrowing route back to Europe, Joe attempts to infiltrate the Hitler Youth movement in Germany while at the same time searching for his mother and father in wartime Berlin.

SALES POINTS:

- An intriguing, thought-provoking and impossible-to-put-down read from award-winning author Brian Falkner.
- Touches on themes of survival, personal responsibility and war, all couched in a unique and gripping adventure story.
- Readers will be thrilled by Joe's journey.
- NZ author Falkner now lives on Australia's Gold Coast and has been published in 14 countries, including NZ, Australia and the USA.

Inspired by the true story of Muslims who saved the lives of Jewish children in the Second World War. In 1942, in the Grand Mosque in Paris, 11-year-old Ruben is hiding from the Nazis. Already thousands of Jewish children have disappeared, and Ruben's parents are desperately trying to find his sister. Ruben must learn how to pass himself off as a Muslim, while he waits for the infamous Fox to help him get to Spain to be reunited with his family. One hint of Ruben's true identity and he'll be killed. So will the people trying to save him. But when the mosque is raided and the Fox doesn't come, Ruben is forced to flee. Finding himself in the south of France, he discovers that he must adjust to a new reality, and to the startling revelation of the Fox's true identity.

2020 NATIONAL SIMULTANEOUS STORYTIME

#NSS2020

#1millionkidsreading

Wednesday 27 May

www.alia.org.au/nss

Scholastic Australia is proud to support ALIA for NATIONAL SIMULTANEOUS STORYTIME 2020. This is a wonderful initiative, which supports reading and children's literacy.

National Simultaneous Storytime is celebrated annually by the Australian Library and Information Association. Every year a picture book is selected by ALIA and is read simultaneously in libraries, schools, pre-schools, childcare centres, family homes, bookshops and many other places around the country.

This year's title selected is Whitney and Britney: Chicken Divas by Australian author and illustrator, Lucinda Gifford. Lucinda's book is a hilarious and sparkly story about two chickens who sleep by day but turn into jazz singers at night.

In 2019, 1,138,889 children read simultaneously at 11,554 locations across the two nations of Australia and New Zealand.

This event provides an opportunity to involve parents, grandparents, the media and others to participate in and enjoy National Simultaneous Storytime in your store!

Run your own in-store ALIA National Simultaneous Storytime Event. Secure your in-store event kit with your Territory Manager today.

ALIA National Simultaneous Storytime Event Kit includes:

- Information Flyer
- Author Letter
- A3 & A4 Event Poster
- Shelf Talker
- Colour-in Sheet
- Craft Sheets

*Final event store kit component imagery may differ from above.

When Debbie's grandmother gives her a copy of her forefather's old sea journal, she finds it fascinating. While Debbie's own diary tells of 1960s school life and troubles with her friends, excerpts from the diary of 1841 tell of the hardships of life on an emigrant sailing ship. At home, sick with glandular fever, Debbie feels transported back in time. Is it the fever, or is her long-dead relative trying to tell her something? Following a trip to the South Island to visit relatives, Debbie boards the ferry to return home to Wellington. It is April 1968. The ferry's name is Wahine...

SALES POINTS:

- Focuses on New Zealand in the 1960s, culminating in the sinking of the inter-island ferry Wahine.
- Drama and action will appeal to both boys and girls.
- Now with an attractive new jacket.
- Part of a popular 'factional' series of historical diaries making history accessible for children.
- Includes useful Historical Note and a section of photos from the time.

Stuart Horten (ten, but looks younger) is now the owner of a magician's workshop—except that without his Great-Uncle's Last Will and Testament, he can't actually prove it. Which is a problem, since someone else wants it as well; someone who has a lot of money. The workshop contains seven magnificent stage illusions, but when Stuart starts to investigate them, he discovers that each is the gateway to a magical adventure, with a puzzle to solve, and a clue to extract. As the clues mount up, the adventures become riskier. Friendship is strained, danger looms, and Stuart has to decide what sort of prize he really, truly wants.

SALES POINTS:

- A modern classic re-published, from the number one best-selling author of Old Baggage and Wed Wabbit.

What if Cinderella never tried on the glass slipper? Unable to prove that she's the missing princess, and unable to bear life under Lady Tremaine any longer, Cinderella attempts a fresh start, looking for work at the palace as a seamstress. But when the Grand Duke appoints her to serve under the king's visiting sister, Cinderella becomes witness to a grand conspiracy to take the king—and the prince—out of power, as well as a longstanding prejudice against fairies, including Cinderella's own Fairy Godmother. Faced with questions of love and loyalty to the kingdom, Cinderella must find a way to stop the villains of past and present... before it's too late. The next instalment in the popular Twisted Tales series that brings amazing twists and turns to your favourite Disney films, asking the reader, 'what if...?'
