Coco

BY LAURA BUNTING
& NICKY JOHNSTON

 SCHOLASTIC

BIG CITY KITTY

ONCE THERE WAS A SMALL
KITTEN NAMED COCO.

Coco lived on the top floor of the tallest building on Meowington Avenue.

Her days were filled with action, excitement, noise and activity.

And nothing made Coco happier than being a Big City Kitty.

"I can't share with sheep," said Wolf.
"I... ah... have a tendency to eat them. It's in my nature."

Sheep is desperate for somewhere to live, but perhaps a little too trusting of a potential and menacing house-mate. Innocently, Sheep does his best to convince Wolf that he'd be the perfect partner to share a home with—but Wolf knows herself too well and warns Sheep that she wouldn't make the best house-mate.

SALES POINTS:

- Syzmanik's tongue-in-cheek humour will appeal to both the listener and the reader.
- Quirkily illustrated by Nikki Slade-Robinson.
- The story's ending is left a little open-ended, but eagle-eyed children will love spotting something in the final illustration that may give a clue...

 Format: PAPERBACK
 Type: FICTION
 Age Level: 10+
 Dimensions: 129 X 197 MM

QTY

When Peter Cotterill begins his diary in 1953, little does he realise that something is happening elsewhere in New Zealand that is going to have a huge impact on his life. As he tells of his day-to-day life in Napier—school, paper round, Scouts, as well as the lasting effects of World War II on his friends and family—the forces of nature are at work, culminating in an event so tragic that it will shock a whole nation. That was, of course, the Tangiwai rail disaster on Christmas Eve 1953, as a result of the Tangiwai bridge being washed away by a lahar from Mt Ruapehu.

SALES POINTS:

- Veteran NZ children's author David Hill vividly captures a slice of 1950s New Zealand in his story following one boy and his everyday life, culminating in the trip that would change lives forever.
- The tragedy shocked the nation and made headlines around the world—at the time, it was the world's eighth-deadliest rail disaster.
- My New Zealand Story is a series of vividly imagined accounts of life in the past... making history come alive.

A quiet lakeside community with one open secret—everyone knows that Alva's father killed her mother, all those years ago. When there are rumours of dark creatures rising from the lake, Alva assumes that rumours are all they are. But, as terror begins to hold the village in its grip, Alva comes to realise that there may well be a connection between the secrets of her past and the horror of her present.

SALES POINTS:

- Gripping literary horror/thriller with a topical ecological edge.
- Horror is hugely popular amongst the YA audience with TV such as RIVERDALE and STRANGER THINGS topping the viewing charts, along with films such as IT, BIRDBOX and GET OUT.
- THE SIN EATER'S DAUGHTER was the best-selling YA debut of 2015; shortlisted for the Waterstones Prize.

In the usually peaceful city of Arvale, people are going missing. The palace makes an urgent decree: all royal subjects must abide by a strict curfew for their own safety. But for Thandie and her friends, a curfew means more adventure. They dare each other to sneak about the city at night—although Thandie is the only one brave enough to actually do it. One night, Thandie is startled by a strange boy. Little does she know that this meeting will force her life wildly off-track, pushing her towards an unexpected danger and a fearsome unicorn who is at the very heart of the terrible disappearances she's heard so much about.

SALES POINTS:

- A brand-new fairytale for today's children—a classic-in-the-making with a dark unicorn at its heart.
- Gripping story of family, identity and what it means to be good.
- Featuring an inspiring young heroine, a mysterious dark unicorn and a dangerous fight to save the kingdom.
- Perfect for fans of Disney's Twisted Tales.

Age Level: 9+
Dimensions: 210 X 140 MM

From New York Times bestselling author Nic Stone comes an all-new upper middle grade series based on one of the Marvel Universe's break-out characters—Shuri, from Black Panther! An original series starring the break-out character from the Black Panther comics and films: T'Challa's younger sister, Shuri! Shuri is a skilled martial artist, a genius and a master of science and technology. But she's also a teenager. And a princess. This story follows Shuri as she sets out on a quest to save her homeland of Wakanda. For centuries, the Chieftain of Wakanda (the Black Panther) has gained his powers through the juices of the Heart-Shaped Herb. Much like Vibranium, the Heart-Shaped Herb is essential to the survival and prosperity of Wakanda. But something is wrong. The plants are dying. No matter what the people of Wakanda do, they can't save them. And their supply is running short. It's up to Shuri to travel from Wakanda in order to discover what is killing the Herb, and how she can save it, in the first volume of this all-new, original adventure.

Bestselling author Sam Maggs brings Nadia Van Dyne (the Unstoppable Wasp) and her genius friends to life in an all-new original YA novel based on the world of The Unstoppable Wasp Marvel comics series. Nadia Van Dyne is new to this. New to being a Super Hero, new to being a real friend and stepdaughter (to one of the founding Avengers, no less), new to running her own lab, and new to being her own person, far, far away from the clutches of the Red Room—the infamous brainwashing/assassin-training facility. She's adjusting well to all of this newness, channeling her energy into being a good friend, scientist and Super Hero. But Nadia's finding that there are never quite enough hours in a day. So, when she's gifted a virtual assistant powered by the most cutting-edge A.I. technology that the world has to offer, Nadia jumps at the opportunity to "do less, experience more"—just like the advertisements say. The device works—really works. But it's never quite that simple, and not everything is as it seems. This thrilling adventure finds Nadia confronting her past as she tries to shape her future, and learning that sometimes the best way to effect big change is to think small—maybe even super small, Unstoppable Wasp-style. She'll need the help of her genius G.I.R.L. (Genius In action Research Labs) squad and found family to save herself and (not to be too dramatic) the entire world as we know it.

Half-witch, half-mortal sixteen-year-old Sabrina Spellman has made her choice: She's embraced her witchy roots, and her power is growing daily. But will it come at too high a price? It's not easy being half-mortal, half-witch. At least, not for Sabrina Spellman. She just discovered that her dad is Satan... and that it's her destiny to rule Hell. As usual, Sabrina's got other plans for her future. She's figured out a way to trap her father... but he's caged in the body of her boyfriend, Nick Scratch. Now the love of her life is stuck in Hell... with Satan stuck inside him. Sabrina knows there's a way to get Nick back while also keeping dear old dad out of commission. She just has to figure out what it is. Unfortunately, her loyal cousin Ambrose is unavailable—he's off hunting Father Blackwood, the evil former head of the Church of Night. Fortunately, Sabrina's still got her mortal friends, Roz, Harvey, and Theo. So when her aunt Zelda, now the church's high priestess, mentions an ancient quest that might help open the gates of Hell, Sabrina and her friends are all in. But Zelda failed to mention that the quest has some perils of its own...

Everyone knows the characters from Riverdale: popular Archie Andrews, girl-next-door Betty Cooper, angsty Jughead Jones, and the sophisticated Veronica Lodge. But this is not the Riverdale you know and love. Something twisted has awoken in the town with pep. Inspired by the iconic Archie Horror comics, this reimagined universe takes the grittiness of the TV show and adds a paranormal twist. Someone is killing the citizens of Riverdale. And after a bloody full moon, Jughead realises he is the killer! Jughead is a werewolf. Can he keep this secret from his friends—including werewolf-hunting Betty Cooper? Jughead has to get his dark side under control—before it controls him.
