When we last saw our heroes, George and Harold, they had been turned into evil zombie nerds doomed to roam a devastated, post-apocalyptic planet for all eternity. But why, you might ask, didn't the amazing Captain Underpants save the boys from this frightening fate? Because Tippy Tinkletrousers and his time-travelling hijinks prevented George and Harold from creating Captain Underpants in the first place! Now, having changed the course of human history forever, they'll have to figure out a way to CHANGE IT BACK!

Raina just wants to be a normal sixth-grader. But one night after Girl Scouts she trips and falls, severely injuring her two front teeth. What follows is a long and frustrating journey with on-again, off-again braces, surgery, embarrassing headgear and even a retainer with fake teeth attached(!). And on top of that there's still more to deal with: a major earthquake, boy confusion and friends who turn out not so friendly. Raina's story takes us from middle school to high school, where she discovers her artistic voice, finds out what true friendship really means and where she can finally... smile.

SALES POINTS:

- A stunning, foiled hardback edition of this best-selling graphic novel, perfect for fans and new readers alike!
- Includes 16 extra pages of content, including a photo gallery, a step-by-step making-of section where Raina details her creative process, and an interview with Raina!
- A fantastic gift for anyone going through those awkward pre-teen years (or for anyone who has survived them)!

Jim the chimpanzee is in a terrible mood for no good reason. His friends can't understand it—how can he be in a bad mood when it's SUCH a beautiful day? They encourage him not to hunch, to smile, and to do things that make THEM happy. But Jim can't take all the advice... and has a bit of a meltdown. Could it be that he just needs a day to feel grumpy? Suzanne and Max Lang's hilarious approach to this very important lesson is an excellent case study in the dangers of putting on a happy face and demonstrates to kids that they are allowed to feel their feelings (though they should be careful of hurting others in the process!).

SALES POINTS:

- The hilarious New York Times best-selling picture book about dealing with unexplained feelings, and what happens when they're suppressed.
- Encourages self-expression by letting kids know that it's okay to feel things and teaches them how to ride out those feelings without hurting others.
- Perfect for parents having trouble with their kids' tantrums.

Twelve-year-old Cassi Whelan and her dad have just moved into a repaired house on the edge of Christchurch's Red Zone. Although Cassi was only four when earthquakes decimated Christchurch, her memories still haunt her. An obsessive runner, she finds the wide-open spaces of the cleared Red Zone suit her perfectly. However, she becomes suspicious about strange comings and goings at the broken-down house next door. A chance meeting with a boy who lives on the other side of the house who is a tech geek leads to them setting up a surveillance system to investigate what's happening... and the adventure begins.

SALES POINTS:

- Des Hunt peoples his books with believable characters, recognisable places and plenty of action and mystery, and this latest book doesn't disappoint.
- Compelling read, combining adventure, science and mystery.
- Includes themes of bullying, coping with adversity, exploitation, and trafficking of endangered species.

Ivan is a gorilla in captivity and has trouble remembering a time when he wasn't living in a shopping mall. In his cage, he draws with crayon and paper, and is always the star of the show. One day, a little elephant named Ruby enters his world and shows him the significance of the place we call home. Based on a true story, this beautifully illustrated picture book tells the sweet story of Ruby and Ivan. A tale of friendship, courage, and creativity.

High School Musical: The Musical: The Series is a mockumentary musical drama television series created for Disney+. It follows a group of students who attend the Utah high school where the original High School Musical movies were filmed, as they prepare for their fall production of High School Musical. Ricky and Nini, who play Troy Bolton and Gabriella Montez, share chemistry on and off the stage, but with their understudies EJ and Gina plotting to take over their roles, will these talented performers make it to opening night?

'Ah, puppies. But we'll get to that part of the story soon enough.'

You may think you know the tale: a happy young couple, two loyal dogs, a litter of fifteen perfectly spotted puppies and the woman determined to turn them into a perfectly spotted fur coat—so determined that she stole every Dalmatian puppy in London, bringing the total of dogs to exactly one-hundred-and-one. But who is that monster, that scene-stealer, that evil thing? Who is the woman behind it all? Before the car crash, before the dognapping, before furs became her only true love, there was another story. This is the story of Cruella De Vil—in her own words. Even the cruellest villains have best friends, true loves and daring dreams. After all, nothing is as simple as black and white.

Isolation can open up a void. Pete lashes out at his younger brother in the wake of his parents' divorce, falling prey to a gruesome curse. Kasey struggles with the lengths she'll go to survive on the streets after stealing a pair of unusual novelty glasses. Samantha and her sister, Susie, struggle to exist side by side, desperate to connect after a horrific tragedy. But in the grim world of Five Nights at Freddy's, empty feelings often attract hungry monsters...

In this fourth volume, Five Nights at Freddy's creator Scott Cawthon spins three sinister novella-length stories from different corners of his series' canon, featuring cover art from fan-favourite artist LadyFiszi.

Readers beware: This collection of terrifying tales is enough to unsettle even the most hardened Five Nights at Freddy's fans.
