Witches are real, and they are very, very dangerous. They wear ordinary clothes and have ordinary jobs, living in ordinary towns all across the world—and there's nothing they despise more than children. When an eight-year-old boy and his grandmother come face-to-face with the Grand High Witch herself, they may be the only ones who can stop the witches' latest plot to stamp out every last child in the country! This full-colour graphic novel edition of Roald Dahl's The Witches, adapted and illustrated by Eisner Award winner Pénélope Bagieu, is the first-ever Dahl story to appear in this format.

The last influenza pandemic the world faced was in 1918, when the deadly Spanish Flu spread around the world. Part of the popular My NZ Story series, Pandemic is the fictional day-to-day diary of 11-year-old Freda Rose, who is looking forward to the return of her brother Bobby from the Western Front. It is 1918 and little does she know that something else is on its way from battle-scarred Europe: a disease that will soon prove more devastating than any war. As time goes on, more and more people fall prey to the Spanish Flu, schools are closed and public gatherings cancelled. And when at last Bobby does come home, he is not the same person who went away.

SALES POINTS:

- Compelling rejacketed edition.
- Includes a foreword with useful information on the coronavirus outbreak as well as suggestions on what to do in a pandemic.
- Includes Historical Note and photos from the 1918 era.
- Almost one-third of the world's population became infected with the flu virus in the 1918 pandemic, and more people died (around 50 million) than in the whole of the First World War.
- Part of a popular 'factional' series of historical diaries—an effective educational tool.

Ava, CJ, Jordan, and Martha have been friends since kindergarten. Now they're in their senior year, facing their biggest fears about growing up. But there's more than just college on the horizon: one of these girls is destined to become the president of the United States. But who? Is it Ava, the picture-perfect artist who's struggling to figure out where she belongs? Or could it be CJ, the one who's got everything figured out... except how to fix her terrible SAT scores? Maybe it's Jordan, the group's resident journalist, who's ready for more than their small town can offer. And don't overlook Martha, who will have to overcome all the obstacles that stand in the way of her dreams. This is the story of four best friends who have one another's backs through every new love, breakup, stumble, and success—proving that great friendships can help young women achieve anything... even a seat in the Oval Office.

SALES POINTS:

- A light, fun novel focusing on female friendship and romance.
- Huge new audience for contemporary teen stories thanks in no small part to Netflix (To All the Boys, Dumplin', Sex Education, etc).
- Created by the Executive Producer of The Bold Type (Amazon Prime).

TAMARIND & THE STAR OF ISHTA

What if Wonderland was in peril and Alice was very, very late? Alice is different to other eighteen-year-old ladies in Kexford, which is perfectly fine with her. She'd rather spend golden afternoons with her trusty camera or in her Aunt Vivian's lively salon, ignoring her sister's wishes that she stop all that 'nonsense' and become a 'respectable' member of society. Alice is happy to meander to Miss Yao's teashop or to visit the children playing in the Square. She's also interested in learning more about the young lawyer she met there, but just because she's curious, of course, not because he was sweet and charming. But when Alice develops photographs she has recently taken about town, familiar faces of old suddenly appear in the place of her actual subjects—the Queen of Hearts, the Mad Hatter, the Caterpillar. There's something eerily off about them, even for Wonderland creatures. And as Alice develops a self-portrait, she finds the most disturbing image of all—a badly injured, dark-haired girl asking for Alice's help. Mary Ann. Returning to the place of nonsense from her childhood, Alice finds herself on a mission to stop the Queen of Hearts' tyrannical rule and to find her place in both worlds. But will she be able to do so... before the End of Time?

Best-selling author Sam Maggs brings Nadia Van Dyne (the Unstoppable Wasp) and her genius friends to life in an all-new original YA novel based on the world of The Unstoppable Wasp Marvel comics series. Nadia Van Dyne is new to this. New to being a Super Hero, new to being a real friend and stepdaughter (to one of the founding Avengers, no less), new to running her own lab, and new to being her own person, far, far away from the clutches of the Red Room—the infamous brainwashing/assassin-training facility. She's adjusting well to all of this newness, channeling her energy into being a good friend, scientist and Super Hero. But Nadia's finding that there are never quite enough hours in a day. So, when she's gifted a virtual assistant powered by the most cutting-edge A.I. technology that the world has to offer, Nadia jumps at the opportunity to 'do less, experience more'—just like the advertisements say. The device works—really works. But it's never quite that simple, and not everything is as it seems. This thrilling adventure finds Nadia confronting her past as she tries to shape her future, and learning that sometimes the best way to effect big change is to think small—maybe even super small, Unstoppable Wasp-style. She'll need the help of her genius G.I.R.L. (Genius In action Research Labs) squad and found family to save herself and (not to be too dramatic) the entire world as we know it.
