STUNT

KID

A cartoon illustration of a young boy with brown hair, wearing a yellow t-shirt and grey pants, performing a handstand on a large black letter 'K'. He is smiling and looking towards the viewer. The background is a teal starburst shape with a white dot pattern, surrounded by a black border with yellow lightning bolts and white triangles.

Levi is pretty sick of starring in Dad's stupid TV show, Kid Kablam. Because Levi is the kid who gets KABLAMMED! So far he's been knocked down, blown up, and attacked by wild animals. And Dad has one more scene planned—the most dangerous stunt so far. Can Levi survive this final stunt without seriously stacking it?

SALES POINTS:

- A brand new comedy from award-winning Australian author, Jack Heath.
- A side-splitting tale about a quiet kid forced into performing dangerous stunts by his wannabe director dad for a TV show pilot, with a surprisingly heart-warming conclusion.
- A lengthier story for slightly older readers, aged 9+.
- Packed full of uproarious illustrations and funny design elements to break up the text, making it an accessible read for all levels.

Snowfall didn't expect to be queen of the IceWings at such a young age, but now that she is, she's going to be the best queen ever. All she has to do is keep her tribe within IceWing territory, where it's safe—while keeping every other tribe out, where they belong.

It's a perfect and simple plan, backed up by all the IceWing magic Snowfall can find. That is, until a storm of unidentified dragons arrives on her shore, looking for asylum.

The foreigners are completely strange and, Snowfall is certain, utterly untrustworthy. But as she escorts the miserable new tribes out of her kingdom, Snowfall is forced to reconsider her plan. Maybe she can only keep her tribe safe... if she's willing to risk everything.

Who are you calling little?

Chicken Little is NOT afraid of anything. Well, okay, maybe a mysterious BONK to the head can produce panic. But only momentarily. It's not as though she meant to send the barnyard into a tailspin, thinking that the sky was falling. How ridiculous! But can she calm her feathered friends with facts and reason?

SALES POINTS:

- A timeless favourite becomes a clever cautionary tale in this funny, fresh, and timely picture book debut by cartoonist Sam Wedelich.
- Punchy speech bubbles and hilarious cartoon illustrations will delight readers of all ages.

Karen is having a terrible day. Her favourite jeans are missing, there's no prize in the Crunch-O cereal box, and Boo-Boo the cat won't play with her. She even gets punished and sent to her room! Karen tries everything to make her day better, but nothing is going right and her bad luck just won't go away. Will this be the worst day ever?

A brand-new Baby-Sitters Club graphic novel adapted by newcomer Gabriela Epstein. Claudia has always been the most creative kid in her class... until Ashley Wyeth comes along. Ashley says Claudia is a great artist, too, but thinks she's wasting her artistic talent with the BSC. When Claudia starts spending more time with Ashley and missing BSC meetings, it becomes clear that Claudia has to make a decision... one of them has to go!

In 1914, Tom Stott falls in love with Gracie O'Donnell, but their love is thwarted by circumstance and war. Tom finds himself part of the blood-soaked landings at Gallipoli, while Gracie marries another. A deception, born in a place and time on the brink of war, traverses the world as successive generations seek freedom in a century of change. It isn't until American teen Noah Clifford joins his mother Deborah, his grandfather Will and his great-grandmother Gracie in Australia that the secrets of the past are revealed, secrets that will take them back to the beaches of Gallipoli... From multi-award winning author, Richard Yaxley, comes a story of connectedness, family and the power of truth.

SALES POINTS:

- New YA from PM's Literary Award Winner, Richard Yaxley.
- Moving, insightful, unputdownable.

I could hardly see. There was dust and smoke everywhere. I was falling, sliding down into a gap that had opened up between parts of the collapsed building. It was dark and silent. all I could hear was the sound of my own breathing, and my beating heart thumping in my ears. Then I heard the cry again: the cry for help.

Growing up by the beach in Newcastle in 1989 means footy, sandcastle competitions and school. Michael's dad's a journalist and his small world gets bigger as he starts to pay attention to the news. His interest turns into anxiety and obsession as Michael begins to see the world as a dangerous place that is fast collapsing around him. When the Berlin Wall comes down, most see it as a sign of change and freedom but Michael isn't convinced. But when an earthquake hits his home town, Michael discovers that the worst that can happen is not always as bad as your fears.

SALES POINTS:

- From former ABC editorial director, Alan Sunderland.
- Dramatic story of the events of 1989—a year of global shifts— and the Newcastle Earthquake.
- Explores how children can be affected by exposure to global news and events.
- Latest in the incredibly successful My Australian Story series.
- Themes: anxiety, change, bravery.

The astonishing journey of teenager Joseph St George (Katipo Joe) continues. Recruited by MI5, this time Joe is on a mission to infiltrate an elite group of Hitler Youth. In a world where one wrong word could bring catastrophe, he must compete with the other young people for a prize beyond his wildest dreams. But the consequences of failure are torture and death.

From the war-torn skies over Germany to the heights of the Eagle's Nest—Hitler's hideaway—this is Joe's story. Set amidst actual events, Joe's story is a tale of incredible heroism, unlikely romance and unbearable tragedy.

SALES POINTS:

- Sequel to the acclaimed Katipo Joe: Blitzkrieg.
- An intriguing, thought-provoking and impossible-to-put-down read from this award-winning author.
- Touches on themes of survival, personal responsibility and war, all couched in a unique and gripping adventure story.
- Readers will be thrilled by Joe's journey.
- Award-winning NZ author Falkner now lives on Australia's Gold Coast and has been published in 14 countries, including NZ, Australia and the USA.

Reviewers praise Katipo Joe: Blitzkrieg

"If the follow-up books are as good as this first, then this is a series that will be in demand. Brian Falkner knows how to create pace, slow things a little, up the tension again, ease the action by a fraction, then pour the pace on yet again."

— Bookrapt

"This action-filled war story of World War 2 is a novel to rival the Alex Rider series by Anthony Horowitz. I make this comparison because it is totally world-class writing from, in my opinion, the best action writer in New Zealand."

Young Joe is living in pre-WWII Berlin, with his British father and NZ mother, attending school and witnessing the excitement of his friends who are enthusiastically joining the Hitler Youth Movement. Joe feels uncomfortable with the growing mistreatment of local Jews, and after the arrest of his father as a spy, he is forced to escape from Berlin with his mother. Joe is separated from his mother and evacuated to New Zealand, and, while war looms in Europe, he is frustrated by his distance from the action, and his inability to do anything about finding his father. After a harrowing route back to Europe, Joe attempts to infiltrate the Hitler Youth movement in Germany while at the same time searching for his mother and father in wartime Berlin.

Inspired by the extraordinary works of Australian artists painting the First World War as it happened around them, this evocative book commemorates and explores the sacrifice of the soldiers, nurses who served and the families at home waiting for their return. Illustrator Simon O'Carrigan has worked with war museum collections to curate, collate and recreate the original art to produce heartbreaking illustrations in this one-of-a-kind Anzac book.

*There's a track winding back,
to an old-fashioned shack,

The words are familiar, but the story they tell may not be. Andrew McLean's illustrations bring to life the story of the men who went to the Great War, many of them never to return home. A poignant story of war and homecoming to the lyrics of the iconic song, this edition includes a new recording of the song, movingly performed by Paul McDermott.

A wartime classic from two legends of children's literature! When John McCrae wrote his famous poem 'In Flanders Field' among the trenches of war-torn Belgium, neither he nor a local village girl who saves a discarded draft of it could know what enormous power that poem would have on generations to come.

Lying about his age, and looking for adventure, 14-year-old Victor March enlists in the 10th Battalion of the AIF to fight in the Great War. Victor and his new mates, Fish, Needle and Robbo, are headed for the Gallipoli peninsula and into battle. He is among the first soldiers to land at Anzac Cove on 25 April 1915, and the world as he knows it is about to change. In his diary, Victor records the horrors of war, his friendships, his fears and the story of Australia's most legendary military campaign.

It is 1940, and 16-year-old Peter Fullerton and his best mate Tony Cantonelli lie about their age to enlist in the army. Tony also lies about his surname—Australia is at war with Italy, and suspicion has been added to the racism he already encounters. Heroes of Tobruk follows these characters from the outbreak of war, through military training to the Siege of Tobruk. Meticulously researched, it combines historical detail and factual information about World War II with a very powerful personal story.

In 1939, 12-year-old Sasha, inspired by the words of her father, the celebrated journalist Louis Jullian, feels she must find a way to stand up to Nazi terror, in the shadow of a world at war. Hitler's blitzkrieg results in the surrender of France and Sasha and her family flee Paris—learning first hand the brutality of war—and how acts of resistance, no matter how small, can make a difference. In their occupied country, fraternising with the enemy is frowned on, but necessary. It only gets more complicated when she meets Dieter, a member of the Hitler Youth and the son of her father's best friend. How can Sasha know who to trust when the enemy becomes a friend?

First published over 100 years ago in 1918, these delightful tales of iconic Australian folklore have never been out of print. Combined together in one hardback bind-up for the first time, this edition includes The Complete Adventures of Snugglepoot & Cuddlepoot, Little Ragged Blossom, Little Obelia, Nuttybub & Nittersing and Chucklebud & Wunkydoo. Featuring May Gibbs' original stories and hand-drawn illustrations, this edition brings to life the enchanting world of the gumnut babies and other bush characters for today's generation.

Snugglepoot and Cuddlepoot set off looking to see a Human for the first time. Their adventures take them all across the bush introducing us to beloved characters and native bush creatures along the way. This hardback is the ultimate addition to any fan's collection.

Shuri, the Princess of Wakanda (and sister to the Black Panther), sets out to save a group of kidnapped girls in this all-new, original middle-grade novel by New York Times best-selling author Nic Stone! With the heart-shaped herb thriving, a group of Wakanda's finest engineers working on expanding her dome technology, and the borders more fortified than ever, Princess Shuri can finally focus on what matters most: her training. Soon, a bigger problem rears its head. The princess hears whispers of exceptionally talented young girls across the world going missing. A young environmental scientist in Kenya, a French physics prodigy... and the list of the missing keeps growing and growing. And when this mystery hits home in a way the princess would've never expected, there's no more time for hesitation. There are lost girls out there somewhere, and Shuri is determined not to let them be forgotten.

At the Alfea International School, students come from all over the Otherworld to train. To learn magic. To discover how to control their powers. Inside the school's castle, five students are assigned as roommates: Aisha is an athlete and a classic overachiever whose control over water is the envy of her fellow students. Terra is an awkward do-gooder whose power over the natural world can overwhelm rivals unexpectedly. Musa is an introvert who keeps to herself so her mind isn't overwhelmed by the emotions of those around her. Stella is a princess—yes, a real princess—whose command over light inspires but also intimidates. And then there's Bloom, the outsider, the girl from the human world whose power over fire almost destroyed her family. These five teenagers want what every teenager wants... to figure out who they are. To make friends. To fit in at their new school. But when an ancient, long-vanquished evil suddenly resurfaces outside the castle walls, these five teenagers are forced to put their powers to the test. And they'll discover a secret so powerful, it will challenge everything they know about the Otherworld... and themselves.
