Take the READING Challenge this May!

National Family Reading Month is celebrating 25 years of encouraging families to read more together. This May, we are asking families to make reading a priority and a part of their daily routine by reading together on all 31 days – to rocket their way into reading success!

How to get families involved:

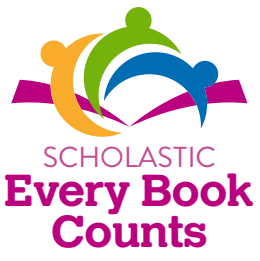

1. Hang the poster in your classroom (see next page)
2. Tell students about the Reading Rocket Log on the back of the Book Club catalogue and online.
3. Find resources to support the challenge at:
scholastic.com.au/nfrm

FOLLOW ALONG!

How do you know when kids have 'got it'?

TRAFFIC LIGHT SELF-ASSESSMENT

TRAFFIC LIGHT CHAT

'Help, please! I don't understand this. I'm not ready to move on yet'

'I'm getting there. I need a bit of help. I'm a bit unsure. I need to practise'

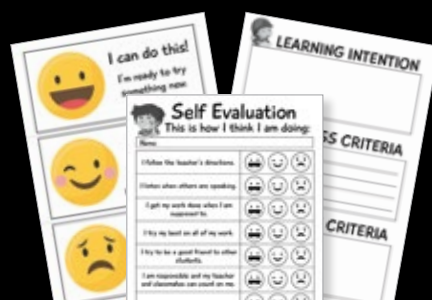

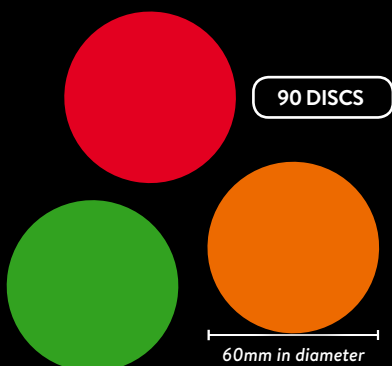

'Hey, I can do this!—and I think I'm ready to try something new.'

860. Traffic Light Discs – A Self-Assessment Tool

Traffic Light Discs are a great self-assessment tool to help children communicate their level of understanding of a topic without having to wait, put their hands up or interrupt the class. Each child has their own set of three, durable plastic Traffic Light Discs (red, orange and green). You can then instantly and clearly see when a child requires additional support or input, or when a child is confident.

Pack of 90 discs, each 60mm in diameter (30 x Red, 30 x Green, 30 x Orange)
