WHO THE HECK ARE GUY & MATT?

Guy Edmonds & Matt Zeremes

The guys who wrote this book are technically animals. But they're the human kind. I know. Weird, huh? Anyway, when Guy was 11, he was a rock-climbing champion, played the clarinet and his favourite milkshake flavour was lime. When Matt was 12, he was a football champion, collected collector cards and ate lasagne for breakfast. Now they write books, TV, films and their kids' assignments, and they still love lime milkshakes and lasagne. They play video games, sport and one day want to put bunk beds in their office so they can have naps after lunch.

Aaron Peterson feels like he's trapped in a recurring nightmare. After moving halfway across the world to flee his father's latest theme park failure, yet another disaster has occurred: a roller coaster car jumps the tracks at the Golden Apple Amusement Park, resulting in the death of his friend, Lucy Yi. As the town of Raven Brooks turns against the Peterson family, dredging up his father's past failures and seeking legal action against his flawed designs, Aaron withdraws into his own investigation. Because now Aaron knows the town is hiding a dirty secret: a secret enmeshed in his grandparents' research, the deadly defects in his father's theme park rides, and a secret society that will stop at nothing to keep their existence hidden.

Julie Molina and her band, Julie and the Phantoms, play their dream gig at the Orpheum. It was supposed to be Luke, Reggie, and Alex's unfinished business as ghosts, so they could cross over. But they didn't. And now, suddenly, Julie can feel them. Whatever happens next, Julie and the guys know they've just had one of the best days of their (after) lives. And it gets Luke and Julie thinking about their last perfect days... For Luke, it was the day he died—the day Sunset Curve was supposed to play the Orpheum. For Julie, it was the day before she found out her mum was sick—the last normal day before her life changed forever. This exclusive Julie and the Phantoms story is told in flashbacks and alternating points of view!
