*'Twas the night before Christmas; there wasn't a sound.
 Not a possum was stirring; no-one was around.
 We'd left on the table some tucker and beer,
 Hoping that Santa Claus soon would be here.*

Christmas in the middle of an Australian summer means Santa has to find new ways to deliver his presents. The obvious solutions are to don a sunhat, shorts and a pair of thongs, not to mention ditching the sleigh and reindeer in favour of some roos and a ute. The gentle illustrations are packed with familiar icons cleverly woven into the visual narrative to recreate the warm, comforting, family atmosphere of Christmas.

WINNER OF GAELYN GORDON
AWARD FOR A MUCH-LOVED BOOK

'We're so lucky to have this place,' Simon's mother would say. 'The caravan may be small, but it's great to have our own home.' When Simon sees a competition in the newspaper for the best-decorated Christmas house, he is keen to enter it. His mother says she can't afford expensive lights and decorations, so Simon decides to decorate their caravan in his own way.

Award-winners Jennifer Beck and Robyn Belton have reunited to create an enchanting story about a child's ingenuity and the beauty that can be found in simplicity.

A stunningly beautiful and poignant story of Christmas.
