NATIONAL SIMULTANEOUS STORYTIME

Wednesday 25 May 2022 | #NSS2022 #1MillionKidsReading

*It started with a seed, and that seed was me.
And, over time, laughter filled my garden...*

We are delighted to bring you the official storybook for National Simultaneous Storytime 2022. National Simultaneous Storytime 2021 was the biggest most successful year yet reaching close to 2 million readers across Australia and New Zealand. But we aren't stopping there. Partnering with ALIA we are planning even bigger and better things for NSS 2022!

Written by much-loved award winning Australian singer/songwriter and children's book author Josh Pyke, renowned for his unique and wonderful storytelling and lyricism and illustrated by award winning picture book creator Ronojoy Ghosh. Living in Sydney with his wife and young son, Ronojoy is a Creative Director of 18 years who has previously worked in India, Indonesia, Singapore and New Zealand.

Family Tree is a heartfelt celebration of family, community and the seasons of life to cherish and share.

Family Tree is such a special book to me. The last couple of years has really highlighted the importance and value of community and family, no matter what that family looks like.

When I look at my children, in my mind, I see a map with lines drawn from Vietnam, Britain, America and Denmark, all leading to our home in Australia. Diversity and access to different stories, different experiences and backgrounds, is what makes for a robust and accepting family. I imagine my kids exploring the world, and sharing their own stories, whilst always knowing their roots are strong back home.

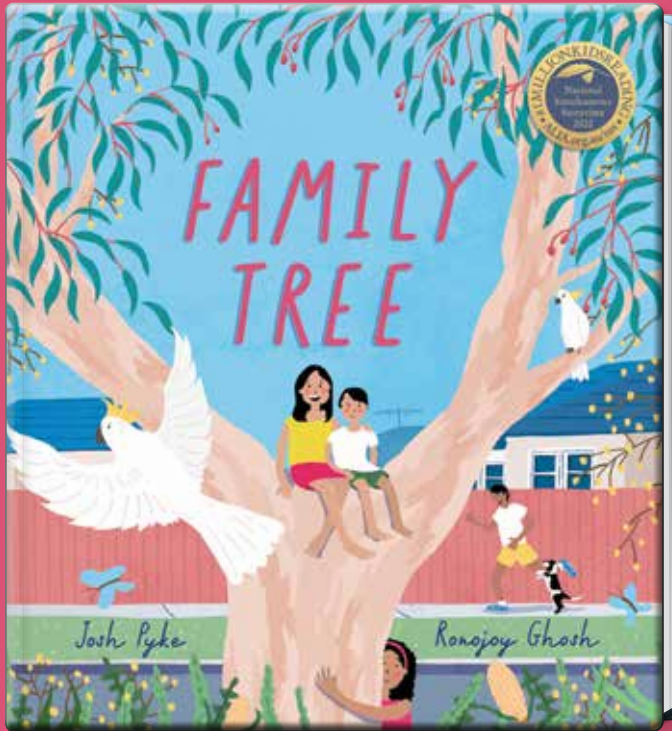

Ronojoy brought such a beautiful aesthetic to this project. I love that the landscape is unmistakably Australian, but that in his characters he highlights our diverse culture, as well as a gentle depiction of the diaspora of people and seeds, spreading our stories far and wide.

Type: PICTURE
Age Level: 5+
Dimensions: 250 X 240 MM
Page Count: 32 PP

Written by Peter Dodds McCormick in 1878, Advance Australia Fair was chosen by the people of Australia as their national anthem almost 100 years later. Award-winning illustrator, Tony Flowers, has captured the spirit of the lyrics by showcasing our home's abundant gifts—from the encircling seas, across its boundless plains, to its spiritual heart. With charming images celebrating our cities, our towns, our land and our people, this beautiful edition invites all Australians to join together and combine to... Advance Australia Fair. In 1973, Prime Minister Gough Whitlam began the search for a new anthem to replace God Save the Queen. In 1977 a plebiscite was held to choose a new national song, and from 1984, Advance Australia Fair became our national anthem. Sung in classrooms, on Olympic podiums on sports fields, in memorials, this beautifully illustrated edition is one to treasure.

SALES POINTS:

- Australian national anthem.
- Perfect for the classroom, the library, and for celebrating our national song.
- Stunning illustrations from award-winning illustrator, Tony Flowers celebrate the diversity of our land and our people.

Natalie has just arrived at summer camp and soon realises it isn't anything like the brochure. Instead of spending the summer with her best friends, Natalie is stuck with her ex-BFF, Lily, and someone even more annoying: Millie Flatbottom. Even worse, she's constantly pushed out of her comfort zone to come face-to-face with some of her greatest fears. Although summer camp isn't at all what Natalie expected, could it be exactly what she needs?

SALES POINTS:

- Nat Enough #1 was an instant New York Times bestseller!
- This fun, accessible story has strong market appeal and will charm a wide range of readers.
- Maria Scrivan has been nominated for many awards for incredible cartoon and illustrating work.

Transplanted from her exciting life as an explorer's daughter, Ellie finds herself miserable at a posh boarding school. Ellie hates all the boring rules, the other girls are mean to her, and the headmistress is frosty good manners personified. When a bat removal expert is called in to deal with an infestation, Ellie meets his irrepressible children and finds herself making friends at last. Together they explore the city, with particular interest in the grand exhibition showing priceless artefacts for the first time. When the objects are stolen in a dramatic heist, Ellie is sure her new friends are responsible but the true culprit might be closer to home... Warm, witty and packed full of gorgeous characters, this is a boarding school mystery with a twist from Sylvia Bishop.

SALES POINTS:

- A captivating boarding school mystery from Sylvia Bishop, author of ERICA'S ELEPHANT, THE BOOKSHOP GIRL and THE SECRET OF THE NIGHT TRAIN.
- Perfect for fans of Robin Stevens' Murder Most Unladylike series.
- A heroine that children will adore and a colourful cast of characters that jump off the page, woven into a wonderfully twisty mystery.
- The Guardian described THE SECRET OF THE NIGHT TRAIN as 'assured, pacey and instantly seductive, it has the intricately laid feel of a classic children's mystery.'
- Reaching teachers, librarians and parents with engaging social media images

What if the hood was just a disguise In and around the ancient forest of Aramor, an urban legend thrives the legend of the wolf who preys on travellers under the full moon and has even been known to attack humans in their own homes. As a townspeople who lives on the edge of the forest, Red is well versed in the danger of the wolf. But trouble has never come that close to home. So when Red travels through the forest at night, even when a full moon sits high in the sky, and never sticks to the path like other townsfolk do. But then Red has always been different. In the depths of winter, whispers of the wolf suddenly become more frequent, and attacks start to surge. This is no ordinary wolf they're dealing with. Suddenly the townsfolk start suspecting each other. But when you don't know who to fear, how can you protect yourself? A classic whodunit in fairy tale form, and a twist that readers won't see coming until the very end.

SALES POINTS:

- There is a huge appetite in the market for darker, twisted takes on fairy tales.
- Scholastic have published DARK UNICORNS so successfully and this series will sit perfectly in that same space.
- Little Red Riding Hood and Hansel & Gretel are the perfect fairy tales to start off with as they have incredible female protagonists at the heart of the story line.

The second book in the Young Prince Series, thirteen-year-old T'Challa can't wait to go back to America to visit his friends Sheila and Zeke, who are staying with Sheila's grandmother in Beaumont, a small Alabama town, over their summer break. But as T'Challa explores the town, he finds that a man named Bob happens to be everywhere he is. When residents of the town begin flocking to Bob's strange message, and a prominent citizen disappears, the Young Prince has no choice but to intervene. Before long, the three teens find themselves caught in a plot involving a rare ancient book and a man who's not as he seems; they must band together to save the people of Beaumont... before it's too late.
