Luna has always wanted to change the world—to fix it, to free it—even if she's never actually known how. Now that all of dragon—and humankind—are in mortal danger, Luna is flying back home to Pantala with a team of dragons on a rescue mission, determined to be brave and useful.

But saving a continent isn't as easy as a prophecy makes it sound, and "facing a great evil" definitely requires more than the fiery silk that Luna is uniquely able to create. As she fights her way to the abyss that hides the dark roots poisoning Pantala, Luna must uncover a long-buried secret and unite her friends, her enemies, and her own powers. If she doesn't, she won't get to change the world. She'll have to say goodbye to it—forever.

Welcome to Barksdale, where all the dogs strive for perfection. Every shopkeeper claims to be the 'best groomer' or sell the 'best biscuits'. And at Barksdale Academy, the pressure is on for one pup to be named Best in Show. Duke's cousin Coco, a French bulldog visiting from Paris is cool, funny, and charming – especially compared to the Underdogs. So when it comes time to choose teams, it's no surprise she ends up on Team Awesome instead of with her cousin Duke and his friends. But during the K-2 exam, Coco can't seem to get anything right! And if Barksdale loses the field day events, everyone including the Underdogs will fail their loyalty exam! Can the Underdogs come to Coco's rescue and save their school's reputation?

SALES POINTS:

- The second chapter book in this fun, highly illustrated series about four dogs who learn that being yourself is much more fun than being Best in Show.
- With illustrations on every page and hilarious antics throughout, this series is perfect for readers who are just starting to read chapter books on their own, or for anyone who loves a good underdog story!
- Underdogs covers the popular themes of working as a team, learning to be your best self, celebrating unique qualities, and embracing differences.
- From the best-selling author of Dragon Masters and the author/illustrator of Paris Takes Over the World!

Format: PAPERBACK
Type: GRAPHIC NOVELS
Age Level: 8+
Dimensions: 203 X 140 MM
Page Count: 272 PP

Sixth grade was SO much easier for Danielle. All her friends were in the same room and she knew what to expect from her life. But now that she's in seventh grade, she's in a new middle school, her friends are in different classes and forming new cliques, and she is completely lost. When Danielle inherits a magical sketchbook from her eccentric great aunt Elma, she draws Madison, an ideal best friend that springs to life right off the page! But even when you create a best friend, it's not easy navigating the ups and downs of relationships, and before long Danielle and Madison are not exactly seeing eye-to-eye. To make matters worse, Danielle has drawn the head of her favourite (and totally misunderstood) cartoon villain, Prince Neptune. He's also come to life and is giving her terrible advice about how to make people like her. When she rejects him and he goes on a rampage during a school pep rally, Danielle and Madison have to set aside their differences to stop him!

SALES POINTS:

- Kristen is getting attention for her Henchgirl comic series, which is in talks to be a TV show.
- IMAGINARY MADISON is a school-based story centered on making friends and keeping them.
- Real-life situations mixed with gentle magic makes for a perfect storytelling combination.
- Funny and heartfelt, with genuine emotional arcs that will appeal to girl readers.

Dany creates a magical duplicate of herself to help with homework and making friends, but it gets complicated when they accidentally let loose a Hinn (sort of like a genie, only it doesn't grant wishes!). And with the big school dance coming up, time is running out to set things right in the town. But when Dany's high school bully, Nick Maloney, befriends the Hinn and shows up at the dance using its magical powers to control the evening, the only thing left to do is save the day! Sigh ... Again.

SALES POINTS:

- Sequel to the hilarious and heartfelt MAKING FRIENDS.
- Squarely aimed at readers who love GHOSTS, AWKWARD, and BRAVE.
- A great story about school, friendships, and being true to yourself.
- Kristen has been featured on several websites as an up-and-coming comic artist to watch out for.

Starfish had recently made up his mind he was really a 'star' of the famous kind. So he spent all his days stuck to the glass, craving the looks of people who passed.

Starfish lives in a tank with Seahorse, Jellyfish, Clownfish and Ray. He longs for fame and makes sure to push his aquarium companions to the back of the tank so he can be the star of the show. Then one day, a crack in the tank threatens all of the occupants. Only Starfish can stop the water rushing out. But it's in the dark recesses of the tank. Is Starfish willing to forego stardom to save the day?

SALES POINTS:

New Zealand is a land of birds,
from North to Stewart Island.
They are found in all the forests tall,
in parks and swamps and dry land.

A beautifully illustrated ode to the birds of Aotearoa New Zealand by acclaimed artist Geoffrey Fuller, who has created striking illustrations to accompany his rhyming, and sometimes humorous, text about birds commonly found in NZ.

SALES POINTS:

- The 20 featured birds include the popular kea, tūi and kiwi as well as less celebrated birds such as the mallard, pied stilt and shag.
- Paper collage illustrations feature a diverse range of habitats.
- Geoffrey's daughter, Elizabeth Fuller, is the illustrator of the much-loved Best-Loved Bear books.
- Geoffrey passed away in 2011 and this book is a tribute to his legacy and love of nature.

QUARANTINE (MY NEW ZEALAND STORY)

AU RRP: $15.99

NZ RRP: $19.99

Author: PHILIPPA WERRY
 Publisher: SCHOLASTIC NEW ZEALAND
 ISBN: 9781775437604
 Format: PAPERBACK
 Type: NOVEL
 Age Level: 10+
 Dimensions: 198 X 128 MM

"Being in quarantine sounds like being in prison," I said, shivering.
 Lily nodded. "A bit like that. Except that the prison is your own home."

It might sound familiar in 2021, but this is New Zealand in 1936–37. The disease is infantile paralysis, or polio, and nobody knows where it will strike next. When even the adults are afraid, Tom finds refuge in his dream—to run in the Olympics like his hero, Olympic champion Jack Lovelock. But it's the strength of some people closer to home that provide his biggest inspiration.

SALES POINTS:

- Werry has written a gripping story of life in the 1930s that will provide children with interesting comparisons to their lives today.
- Includes historical endnotes and images from the period.
- Formerly published by Scholastic as Enemy at the Gate, and now brought under the umbrella of the ever-popular My New Zealand Story series.

Malaya, 1942. Nisha's home is destroyed by war and she and her mother, Amma, flee to her father's ancestral house in England, perched on a cliff top on the cold northern coast. When Amma falls gravely ill, Nisha is left to face her formidable grandmother alone. Grandmother's rules are countless, and her Anglo-Indian grand-daughter is even forbidden from climbing the old weeping tree. But when a ghost child beckons Nisha to sit under its boughs, and promises her Amma's life in return for three truths, its pull proves irresistible...

SALES POINTS:

- A gorgeously evoked wartime ghost story and adventure full of grief, guilt, forgiveness and belonging.
- A fresh angle on a wartime story: the prejudice Nisha faces as a refugee feels particularly relevant today.
- Perfect for fans of Frances Hardinge and Emma Carroll.

Doctor Stephen Strange is a gifted but arrogant surgeon whose life is changed in an instant. Following a horrific car crash, Strange is unable to use his hands for the simplest tasks. He travels to Kathmandu, hoping desperately that rumours of a mystical city called Kamar Taj are true, and he can find someone there to heal him. Down to his last dollar, Strange stumbles upon the city that will hurtle him down a path to dimensions he cannot comprehend and the very real world of magic. But in order to learn, he must forget everything he thinks he knows.

SALES POINTS:

- Relive the adventures of Stephen Strange as he becomes the Master of the Mystic Arts in this retelling of the Marvel Studios movie: Doctor Strange before watching the sequel.
- Fans are super excited for Doctor Strange in the Multiverse of Madness to see how the good doctor will face the new challenge of defending the multiverse.
 - Doctor Strange made a worldwide total of $677.8 million at the box office!

Merida goes on an all-new, life-changing adventure in this original YA novel set several years after the close of Brave! What if you had one year to save everything you loved? ONE PRINCESS. Merida of DunBroch needs a change. She loves her family—jovial King Fergus, proper Queen Elinor, the mischievous triplets—and her peaceful kingdom. But she's frustrated by its sluggishness; each day, the same. Merida longs for adventure, purpose, challenge—maybe even, someday, love. TWO GODS. But the fiery Princess never expects her disquiet to manifest by way of Feradach, an uncanny supernatural being tasked with rooting out rot and stagnation, who appears in DunBroch on Christmas Eve with the intent to demolish the realm—and everyone within. Only the intervention of the Cailleach, an ancient entity of creation, gives Merida a shred of hope: convince her family to change within the year—or suffer the eternal consequences. THREE VOYAGES. Under the watchful eyes of the gods, Merida leads a series of epic journeys to kingdoms near and far in an attempt to inspire revolution within her family. But in her efforts to save those she loves from ruin, has Merida lost sight of the Clan member grown most stagnant of all—herself? FOUR SEASONS TO SAVE DUNBROCH—OR SEE IT DESTROYED, FOREVER.

SALES POINTS:

- Maggie Stiefvater is the celebrated New York Times best-selling author of The Shiver Trilogy, The Raven Cycle, and The Scorpio Races. With over 160,000 followers on Goodreads, this YA author is a highly anticipated contributor to Disney's YA novel range.
- The stunning cover is illustrated by Charlie Bowater, another fan favourite artist with a highly engaged following on Instagram.
- As with other Disney Princess YA novels such as the Queen's Council series, this addition to the range appeals directly to fans longing for more mature character expansions on the original stories.

Angel the miniature zebu calf couldn't even stand months after she was born. Potato, an especially tiny Munchkin cat, was born with a body that was too small. And Bueller, a bulldog puppy, had weak legs that made it too hard for him to walk. What do these three animals have in common? They all overcame the impossible. Luckily, Angel, Potato and Bueller all had the help of supportive humans to help them beat the odds—from vets and foster parents to their very own forever homes! These three inspiring true stories show that with a little love and kindness—and a lot of hard work—we can get through anything together. Each short story in this collection is the perfect length for middle-grade readers. This book also includes a 16-page full-colour insert, featuring photos of all three animals. Angel, Potato and Bueller's stories have been featured on The Dodo, one of social media's most popular animal brands, with over 33 million followers! Their inspiring stories are the perfect example of just how far an animal can go when they have the love of a supportive human by their side.

SALES POINTS:

- The Dodo reaches 110 million people monthly on social media with 2.2B+ views.
- The Dodo is the #1 ranked animal brand on social media and the #1 most 'loved' content on Facebook.
- Animal stories are a kid-favourite topic at all age levels!
- Features 16 pages of full-colour photos!
