We all know kids who carry a book everywhere they go. Kids who can't stop reading, even if it's long after bedtime. Kids who love nothing more than sitting quietly in the corner, turning page after page ... This book is a love letter to all the other kids. The ones who wouldn't dream of asking for a book as a present. The ones who unwrap the box hoping to find anything—a dog, a skateboard, even socks—besides a book. Packed with clever, fourth-wall-breaking gags from Max Greenfield (New Girl) and eye-popping art from New York Times best-selling illustrator Mike Lowery, this ideal read-aloud may not wag its tail or come with wheels, but it's sure to have even the most reluctant bibliophiles laughing all the way to the end.

SALES POINTS:

- From actor Max Greenfield (fan-favourite 'Schmidt' from television's New Girl) comes this hilarious picture book companion to I Don't Want to Read This Book.
- You don't have to be a comedian to read this book and make your kids laugh! Max's hilariously witty (and irreverent) text and Mike's eye-catching lettering and illustrations go hand-in-hand to make this the kind of book parents will want to read-aloud.
- Perfect for reluctant readers and kids who experience reading difficulties.

*'Twas the night before Christmas; there wasn't a sound.
 Not a possum was stirring; no-one was around.
 We'd left on the table some tucker and beer,
 Hoping that Santa Claus soon would be here.*

Christmas in the middle of an Australian summer means Santa has to find new ways to deliver his presents. The obvious solutions are to don a sunhat, shorts and a pair of thongs, not to mention ditching the sleigh and reindeer in favour of some roos and a ute. The gentle illustrations are packed with familiar icons cleverly woven into the visual narrative to recreate the warm, comforting, family atmosphere of Christmas.

'We're so lucky to have this place,' Simon's mother would say. 'The caravan may be small, but it's great to have our own home.' When Simon sees a competition in the newspaper for the best-decorated Christmas house, he is keen to enter it. His mother says she can't afford expensive lights and decorations, so Simon decides to decorate their caravan in his own way.

Award-winners Jennifer Beck and Robyn Belton have reunited to create an enchanting story about a child's ingenuity and the beauty that can be found in simplicity.

A stunningly beautiful and poignant story of Christmas.
